Mrs. Mary Ann Robinson, of This City, Dies a Horrible Death.

SANITY WAS QUESTIONED

And She Was Awaiting Trial In Probate Court at Lisbon.

SET HER CLOTHING ON FIRE

And Was So Badly Burned Before She Could Be Assisted That Death Ensued—Suspected of Burning John Parker's House.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—Mrs. Mary Ann Robinson, who was examined yesterday by physicians as to sanity, was fatally burned yesterday afternoon in her cell in the county jail.

Each cell in the jail is provided with a small stove. Mrs. Robinson attempted to brush some orange peel from the lap of her calico dress and brushed her skirt into the blaze.

In an instant she was enveloped in flames. She rushed into the hall, arousing everybody in the jail by her cries. Robert Nace came out of his cell and wrapped a big overcoat about her. Mrs. Leonard enveloped the woman's limbs in a blanket but help was too late. Mrs. Robinson's left side and limbs were terribly burned.

Doctors Marquis and Calhoun were summoned and pronounced her injuries dangerous. All possible effort was made to save the sufferer's life, but her strength was not sufficient to endure the nervous shock and exhaustion. She died this morning at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Robinson was brought to the jail on Tuesday, her sanity being doubted by her friends.

The house of John Parker, two miles northeast of Wellsville, was burned on Monday. Mrs. Robinson was suspected of starting the fire. Her examination yesterday was puzzling to the medical men, who doubted her insanity.

The woman is said to have been greatly addicted to the use of liquor, and was much weakened both physically and mentally in consequence.

So far the sheriff has been unable to communicate with her relatives.

THE DEAD WOMAN

Was 50 Years Old And Lived Here Before Going to Parker's.

John Parker, whose home on Rowe's run is alleged to have been set fire to by Mrs. Robinson, is employed at the Lythe sewer pipe factory. When seen this morning he said he had secured a Mrs. Reed, of East Liverpool, to watch the Robinson woman, who was staying at his house, but after the fire nothing had been seen of Mrs. Reed. Previous to being taken to Lisbon Mrs. Robinson made her home for several months with Parker.

For about three years she worked at the National house in this city. She was twice married, her last husband being Thomas Humphreys, who died recently in England, but she was generally known as Mrs. Robinson. Last summer she was ill at the Parker home and Mrs. Reed was called to take care of her.

Mrs. Robinson was 50 years old and came here from England about 20 years ago. She has no surviving relatives in this country so far as known.

C. & P. OFFICIALS

Pass Through the City on a Tour of Inspection—Not of Official Importance.

A special train bearing officials of the C. & P. railroad on a tour of inspection passed through East Liverpool this morning, among the party being Supt. W. H. Scriven; Trainmaster Frank Heller; Chief Dispatcher T. J. Rogers and W. J. Sullivan, chief clerk of the superintendent.

The gentlemen declared there was no official significance attached to the mission here.

A VERY STUPID JOKE

Played on a Lisbon Grocer Cost Large Sum in Telephone Tolls.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—Clarence J. Brinker, a young grocer of Lisbon, yesterday received notice to appear before the Columbiana County Association of Law in the common pleas court room to answer charges preferred by the dairy and food commissioner for selling a glazed coffee which is under the commission's ban. The notice was signed "Commissioner for the Eighteenth District" and was on the clerk of court's stationery.

Brinker at once called up the branch office of the Pittsburg concern selling the coffee and asked what he should do.

The news of Brinker's summons reached other grocers and the particular brand of coffee rapidly disappeared from the shelves. Brinker was told by the Pittsburg concern, after a conference by telephone with the head office in New York, to fight the case, pleading not guilty, saying the firm would bear all expenses. So Judge J. G. Moore examined the summons and with Brinker appeared in the court room, only to find no one there or in the clerk's office who knew anything of the matter. The coffee is still off the grocers' shelves, and the grocers' association wonders who is to pay the telephone messages. It was a costly practical joke.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC

SCORE OF CASES IN PLEASANT HEIGHTS DISTRICT.

In Several Instances Three And Four Members of a Family Are Afflicted.

Pleasant Heights is suffering from an epidemic of measles. No less than 20 cases have developed since Sunday, and new ones are reported every day.

The malady has taken a regular course, however, and none of those afflicted have been seriously ill.

In several instances three and four of a family have been down with the disease at the same time. It may be that the school will close if the epidemic continues.

BROOKMAN CASE

ARGUMENT ON DEMURRER HEARD THIS AFTERNOON.

No Decision Probable in the Matter Until Next Week.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—The demurrer to the indictment of D. S. Brookman, manager of the Wellsville sheet mill, was argued in common pleas court this afternoon. The court did not render a decision but expects to do so on Thursday next.

CASE CONTINUED

Trial of Suit Against the Pennsylvania Delayed—C. & P. to Be Defendant.

The case of the Puritan Land company, of the East End, against the Pennsylvania company, which was to have been heard at Lisbon yesterday, has been deferred until the next term of court. Solicitor Kerr, of the Pennsylvania company, was absent from court, and that was one of the reasons the case was continued. Another reason a continuance was asked was that the Pennsylvania company in making the deal acted for the C. & P. railroad company, and it was desired that the last named company be made defendant in the action.

Attorney Mullins, of the railroad counsel, was present, and said the station would have been built had not operations been stopped by council. The contract between the railroad company and the land company stipulates that the station should be built on the lots purchased and not on a portion of the alley.

The defense was granted leave to make the C. & P. a party defendant.

AN INSANE MAN

Taken to Jail Struggling Violently to Get Free From His Captors.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—Owen Frederick was brought to jail yesterday from Washingtonville by Deputy Sheriff Allison, assisted by James Lowe, of East Liverpool.

Frederick is alleged to be insane and was examined in probate court late this afternoon. He is a man of powerful build and struggled violently to escape from the officers.

ALLEGED ROBBERY BY TWO WOMEN

The Victim Whose Cash Is Missing Refuses to File An Affidavit.

HIS WIFE TAKES A HAND

Putting the Officers at Work Upon the Case—The Man Says He Was Drugged in a House on Franklin Street.

Chatting pleasantly with two females whom he had accidentally met, Joshua Haight, residing in California hollow, was robbed of about $13 Wednesday evening. Though the police were notified of the robbery soon after it occurred, little publicity has been given the case for the reason that no arrests have yet been made.

According to Haight's story of the affair the officers have a hard clue to work on in running down the guilty parties. He refuses to file an affidavit against anyone for the reason that he is unable to swear who took the money. All he knows of the matter is that his cash disappeared without his consent.

On leaving home Wednesday afternoon Haight placed $13 in his trousers pocket. He is positive as to the amount of the money he had when relieved and declares he was not intoxicated at the time. He does insist, however, that he was drugged and while in a stupor his friends took advantage of him.

In explaining the case to the officers Haight said that soon after leaving home on the day he lost his cash he went to a liquor store where he took one drink. Leaving the barroom he claims he next went to a house on Franklin street, near Seventh, where he met two well known young men whose reputations do not stand high in police circles. The fellows were entertaining two females who conduct the house and Haight invited them all to take a drink with him.

One of the women went after the desired liquor and in her absence Haight fell asleep. When he awoke his money was missing. He accused his companions of the theft, but all denied having seen the cash. Threats to call the police had no effect and Haight left the place, going home and reporting his misfortune to his wife.

It was Mrs. Haight who first made the theft known to the officers. She at first demanded that the house where the alleged robbery occurred be raided, but finally changed her plan of action. Going herself to the house she accused the women of stealing the money. One of the females promised to try to find it and by so doing temporarily avoided arrest. Mrs. Haight also consulted a justice of the peace and a constable is now working on the case with the police.

THE BUSY SEASON AT HEADQUARTERS

Convention Resolutions Will Pour In Upon N. B. of O. P. Officials.

APRIL 10 THE TIME LIMIT

When Such Documents Must All Be In—More Pottery Combine Talk. Big Meeting of Warehouse Women's Local—Pottery News.

Within the next few days all the local unions in the jurisdiction of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters will be furnished with credentials necessary to qualify their representatives to a seat in the next convention. Secretary T. J. Duffy was busy today making out the blank forms. They will be sent out at once.

From now until April 10 the several locals will continue to send resolutions to the national headquarters. The nature of these documents will be varied and interesting. Few have been received up to the present, but it is thought that many of the organizations have decided to hold their resolutions until within a few days before the time limit expires, when they will have embodied everything they may have to bring before the whole membership.

Just as soon as the papers are in the hands of the national secretary will begin a busy season for that official. He will classify and compile the big batch of documents and they will be printed in pamphlet form. In this shape they will go before the membership previous to the convention in order that all may be given a chance to acquaint themselves with their contents, and enable the delegates to act intelligently and promptly when the resolution is reached in convention.

So many attended a meeting of warehouse women's local No. 706 last evening that all could not be accommodated in the hall. There were 65 new members received last night, making the total membership over 300. Committees are still working in the potteries, and many others will be received at the next meeting, at which time the local will be admitted to membership in the Brotherhood. The members will be obligated by Secretary T. J. Duffy. The initiation fee after the organization is made a part of the Brotherhood will be increased from 50 cents to $1.50.

George Henry Gunther representing certain Pittsburg capitalists, whose identity he has not yet disclosed, is expected to arrive in this city not later than next week to again talk over the matter of forming a syndicate of local potteries. Letters to this effect have been received by local manufacturers quite recently. What message Mr. Gunther will have to deliver to the local manufacturers who attended the last conference in the Potters' club rooms is not made public, and his visit here is being awaited with more than usual interest by firms who were represented at the last conference. Mr. Gunther is said to have made the local manufacturers a fair proposition while here, and which was published in this column at the time, but should he address another conference a different proposition may be presented.

William Rex, of the firm of Rex & Dean, has applied for a patent on an anti-friction, ball bearing jigger, which, it is claimed, is one of the newest machines placed on the market in recent years. The jigger has been given a thorough test in the shop where it was made, and with a small belt, made entirely of belt laces, sufficient power has been obtained to make plates, so easily is the machine operated. The jigger is adjusted with a minute's time, and there are but three set screws used in different parts of the jigger for this purpose. It is one of the simplest jiggers placed on the market. Already an order for one has been placed by the Smith-Phillips China company.

Quite an important move was made at a meeting of kilnmen's local recently which so far has been kept from the public. It has been decided by the local, after much deliberation not to advance any more two-year apprentices to journeymen, as the officials of the local are of the opinion that the trade has been supplied, and hereafter all apprentices will be required to work out their full time of three years. This announcement was made this morning by an official of the local, and it is one of the most important decisions reached by the local for several months. The new ruling it is announced becomes operative at once.

Within the past few weeks very little has been heard of the formation of a new local, to be composed of kiln firemen. There was a time, and not long ago, when it seemed that a local to cover this branch of the trade would be formed, but it seems that interest has declined, from some cause.

Several potteries of this city are experiencing some trouble in securing sufficient saggars to operate their kilns. Factories where these are made, it seems, cannot fill their orders and not enough can be made at the potteries to fill the demand. The reason is given that saggars made during the cold weather are not as durable as those made in the summer months, on account of so much frost being in the clay. It is claimed the clay should have been thoroughly steamed and all frost taken from it before it is worked into saggars.

PLAYED BABY ACT

CULPRIT CRIED FOR MERCY BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Was Arrested for Disorderly Conduct. Got Off By Leaving the City.

William Halley, who claims to be a printing pressman, but who has never worked since he came to this city, was arrested last night for disorderly conduct. Patrolmen Woods and Bryan made the arrest.

The affidavit against Halley was filed by Mrs. Nellie Mackintosh, proprietress of a resort in the West End. She alleged that the accused man kicked in the door of her house and acted disorderly.

When arraigned before the mayor this morning the victim proved himself to be the most thorough booby that ever occupied a berth in the city jail. He was shivering with fright from head to foot and when faced by his accuser he pleaded for leniency like a small school boy.

Halley's wife keeps house for Mrs. Mackintosh and at the hearing it developed that he had repeatedly beaten her. The mayor wanted to send him up for at least six months, but taking pity on the penitent man, the complainant withdrew the charge and paid the costs.

He agreed, however, to get out of town and the mayor warned him to do so at once.

PNEUMONIA DEVELOPS

And Lessens the Chances of Charles Johnson's Recovery—Condition Critical.

Alliance, March 21.—Charles H. Johnson, of Salem, who is confined in the city hospital here, owing to injuries received by falling off a passenger train, put in a severe night, but was considerably improved Thursday.

Owing to the severe chills from exposure, pneumonia has set in and with his injuries makes his condition serious. Attending physicians have hopes that Johnson will survive, although it is difficult to tell what the result may be.

BUSINESS BLOCK

Soon to Rise on the Huntsman Corner—Three Story Brick Structure.

Contracts will be let within a few days for the erection of a three-story brick business block building on the old Huntsman site at the corner of Fourth and Market streets.

The lot was purchased a short time ago by C. C. Thompson, and was formerly owned by Dr. Hamilton, of Pittsburg.

Work on the new building will be commenced within three weeks.

Partition Is Asked.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—George Rice has asked the court for a partition of the estate of his father, Jacob Rice, in which he has an interest, six-thirteenths having been granted him by the father's will. The estate consists of about 200 acres in Fairfield township.

VISIONS OF VAST WEALTH

Caused Him to Astonish Merchants By the Orders He Placed.

SAID HE HAD BEEN IN ALASKA

Where He Amassed Countless Millions—It Is Said His Mind Became Unbalanced As a Result of Continued Gambling.

Visionary wealth of such magnitude that Monte Cristo's legendary millions if placed alongside of it would look like 30 cents, was the cause last evening of the arrest on an insanity charge of Albert Shenton, a well known potter. Sheriff Leonard will take the unfortunate man to Lisbon today, where he will be tried by Judge Boone.

Shenton was taken into custody at about 7 o'clock by Officer Stafford. He was then on Sixth street near the opera house explaining to a crowd of amused spectators that he had just returned from the Alaskan gold fields with countless millions in his possession. He made no objection to his arrest and was locked up without the least trouble.

For the past five months Shenton has been at Wheeling. He returned Wednesday night and made his way to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. McCoy, who lives near Monroe street in the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets. Shenton's wife lives with her mother.

After remaining over night at the house, Shenton went to the home of a neighbor, Mrs. McBride, where he introduced himself. A few moments later he went to the Hill Bros.' grocery, where, after representing himself as a millionaire, he ordered three barrels of flour, five wash tubs, a keg of nutmegs, together with dozens of other articles which he asked to have delivered to Mrs. McBride.

Next going to a prominent jewelry store Shenton left his order for a bushel of diamonds, after which he went to a furniture house and purchased $1,000 worth of mahogany goods, which, he said, he intended to donate to the Carnegie library. In each place he tried to make a purchase, but his actions led those who waited on him to become suspicious and none of the articles he ordered were turned over to him.

After being placed in jail Shenton threatened to bring false imprisonment charges against the police. All of last night and today he talked about his wealth, claiming there were $50,000,000 coming to him today and promising everybody who went near him at least $1,000,000 apiece.

It was at the request of Shenton's wife that Mayor Davidson arranged to have the demented man taken to Lisbon. It is claimed that his mind became affected as the result of continued gambling.

Deputy Sheriff Allison took Shenton to the Lisbon jail this afternoon.

Already an order for one has been placed by the Smith-Phillips China company.

Quite an important move was made at a meeting of kilnmen's local recently which so far has been kept from the public. It has been decided by the local, after much deliberation not to advance any more two-year apprentices to journeymen, as the officials of the local are of the opinion that the trade has been supplied, and hereafter all apprentices will be required to work out their full time of three years. This announcement was made this morning by an official of the local, and it is one of the most important decisions reached by the local for several months. The new ruling it is announced becomes operative at once.

Within the past few weeks very little has been heard of the formation of a new local, to be composed of kiln firemen. There was a time, and not long ago, when it seemed that a local to cover this branch of the trade would be formed, but it seems that interest has declined, from some cause.

Several potteries of this city are experiencing some trouble in securing sufficient saggars to operate their kilns. Factories where these are made, it seems, cannot fill their orders and not enough can be made at the potteries to fill the demand. The reason is given that saggars made during the cold weather are not as durable as those made in the summer months, on account of so much frost being in the clay. It is claimed the clay should have been thoroughly steamed and all frost taken from it before it is worked into saggars.

PLAYED BABY ACT

CULPRIT CRIED FOR MERCY BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Was Arrested for Disorderly Conduct. Got Off By Leaving the City.

William Halley, who claims to be a printing pressman, but who has never worked since he came to this city, was arrested last night for disorderly conduct. Patrolmen Woods and Bryan made the arrest.

The affidavit against Halley was filed by Mrs. Nellie Mackintosh, proprietress of a resort in the West End. She alleged that the accused man kicked in the door of her house and acted disorderly.

When arraigned before the mayor this morning the victim proved himself to be the most thorough booby that ever occupied a berth in the city jail. He was shivering with fright from head to foot and when faced by his accuser he pleaded for leniency like a small school boy.

Halley's wife keeps house for Mrs. Mackintosh and at the hearing it developed that he had repeatedly beaten her. The mayor wanted to send him up for at least six months, but taking pity on the penitent man, the complainant withdrew the charge and paid the costs.

He agreed, however, to get out of town and the mayor warned him to do so at once.

And Lessens the Chances of Charles Johnson's Recovery—Condition Critical.

Alliance, March 21.—Charles H. Johnson, of Salem, who is confined in the city hospital here, owing to injuries received by falling off a passenger train, put in a severe night, but was considerably improved Thursday.

Owing to the severe chills from exposure, pneumonia has set in and with his injuries makes his condition serious. Attending physicians have hopes that Johnson will survive, although it is difficult to fortell what the result may be.

BUSINESS BLOCK

Soon to Rise on the Huntsman Corner—Three Story Brick Structure.

Contracts will be let within a few days for the erection of a three-story brick business block building on the old Huntsman site at the corner of Fourth and Market streets.

The lot was purchased a short time ago by C. C. Thompson, and was formerly owned by Dr. Hamilton, of Pittsburg.

Work on the new building will be commenced within three weeks.

Partition Is Asked.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—George Rice has asked the court for a partition of the estate of his father, Jacob Rice, in which he has an interest, six-thirteenths having been granted him by the father's will. The estate consists of about 200 acres in Fairfield township.

Where He Amassed Countless Millions—It Is Said His Mind Became Unbalanced As a Result of Continued Gambling.

Visionary wealth of such magnitude that Monte Cristo's legendary millions if placed alongside of it would look like 30 cents, was the cause last evening of the arrest on an insanity charge of Albert Shenton, a well known potter. Sheriff Leonard will take the unfortunate man to Lisbon today, where he will be tried by Judge Boone.

Shenton was taken into custody at about 7 o'clock by Officer Stafford. He was then on Sixth street near the opera house explaining to a crowd of amused spectators that he had just returned from the Alaskan gold fields with countless millions in his possession. He made no objection to his arrest and was locked up without the least trouble.

For the past five months Shenton has been at Wheeling. He returned Wednesday night and made his way to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. McCoy, who lives near Monroe street in the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets. Shenton's wife lives with her mother.

After remaining over night at the house, Shenton went to the home of a neighbor, Mrs. McBride, where he introduced himself. A few moments later he went to the Hill Bros.' grocery, where, after representing himself as a millionaire, he ordered three barrels of flour, five wash tubs, a keg of nutmegs, together with dozens of other articles which he asked to have delivered to Mrs. McBride.

Next going to a prominent jewelry store Shenton left his order for a bushel of diamonds, after which he went to a furniture house and purchased $1,000 worth of mahogany goods, which, he said, he intended to donate to the Carnegie library. In each place he tried to make a purchase, but his actions led those who waited on him to become suspicious and none of the articles he ordered were turned over to him.

After being placed in jail Shenton threatened to bring false imprisonment charges against the police. All of last night and today he talked about his wealth, claiming there were $50,000,000 coming to him today and promising everybody who went near him at least $1,000,000 apiece.

It was at the request of Shenton's wife that Mayor Davidson arranged to have the demented man taken to Lisbon. It is claimed that his mind became affected as the result of continued gambling.

Deputy Sheriff Allison took Shenton to the Lisbon jail this afternoon.

A NEW BUILDING

Among the Many Improvements to Made at the Power House.

Contracts for a large improvement at the power house of the United Power company have been let, causing an expenditure of several thousand dollars.

The company purposes to erect a large brick building on the east side of the present boiler room, to accommodate the new boilers, and this will extend 36 feet east of the wall of the old building. The building will be as high as the old boiler house, the only difference being that it will be of the latest design.

The contract for this work has been let to Hill & Wallace, and its construction will commence within a few days. The new boiler ordered by the company at the time the one now being installed was bought will not be received until the new building is completed.

Within a year's time it is expected that not one of the smaller boilers now in use will be doing service, as the plant will be fully equipped with boilers similar to those now being installed.

THE OLD LIBRARY

A CORRESPONDENT WRITES ABOUT THE MERGING.

Faithful Work Done Which the Public May Have Overlooked.

To the Editor of the News Review.

As a citizen and a well wisher for the city's welfare, I ask space in your paper to say a word upon the public library question, which has received much unnecessary attention of late through the press.

I feel that I am in a position to speak fairly and honestly upon the matter; therefore wish to place before the public phases that have at all times been ignored.

There has been a manifest disposition to make something out of nothing. Here let me say to the credit of the board of the public library that its members have never been in doubt as to their action upon the matter when the proper time would come.

The Trades and Labor council has at all times been willing to bear the load that they have placed upon the people—namely the Carnegie library building—and its action has indicated that it has never questioned what course it should pursue when properly recognized. It was certainly the main instigator of the great blessings and may well look with pride upon the achievements.

One point, however, has been greatly overlooked in this question, and a point that bears as a question of honor upon the founders of the public library. It will no doubt be remembered how the library began in our city about five years ago last September. An effort universally put forth among the laboring people resulted in the opening of a library of meager proportions, yet worthy of the effort. By consistent and careful work the library was carried along until about November when Miss Minta McLare, the present librarian, was tendered the position as custodian of the books and property of the same.

The board was in close financial circumstances and the salary agreed upon was $20 per month. It will be remembered that through the summer months the board felt unable to pay the librarian for full time and she worked there for the small salary of $10 per month, feeling that she was helping in a work that would some time would be a great benefit to the city, and perhaps bring her some return. This was the history of the first three years of the library's existence, at which time the school board made the levy allowed by law, and since that time the librarian has been paid full time, the maximum wages being but $30 per month.

Trades and Labor Council, together with the board of the public library, and the labor organizations combined, are loath to forget a favor conferred upon them, and especially when it comes as a sacrifice, and now the time has come when they must combine their efforts and make one good library. The one who has worked most faithfully for the preservation and maintenance of the public library is left without a position. Now this is not a criticism, but a matter that, in my humble opinion, should claim attention.

ENLARGING THE BOARD

THAT POLICY AS TO THE LIBRARY CRITICISED.

A Correspondent Argues That Nine Men Are Not Needed to Do the Work.

To the Editor of the News Review:

As one of the people I rejoice at the consummation of so desirable an object as the union or consolidation of our two public libraries. This, I believe, is in accord with the wishes of the people, and the general public is certainly to be congratulated. But I question the wisdom of the enlargement of our present Carnegie board.

A board of six trustees is certainly large enough. To increase the number to nine is, in my judgment, not only to detract from the dignity and character of the office itself, but to render it less efficient as a practical working body. It is, too, to divide the responsibilities of the individual member and to suggest to us that "what is everybody's business is nobody's." If the object is simply to provide places for three more men on the board, then why not make the number fifty? Suppose there are about five thousand men in East Liverpool, this will give us all about one chance in ten of getting on the board, provided the women are not made eligible.

If it be said this or that class ought to be represented on the board, I answer the policy of class representation in the formation of a board of this kind, is both illogical and unwise. A man's business, trade, profession or calling, or the fact that he is a member of that order or that order or no order can have no possible bearing upon his fitness or qualification for the office. What is wanted is a faithful and efficient administration of the affairs of the board. With such an administration what matters it whether a member be a laboring man, merchant, millionaire or clerk, whether he be an Odd Fellow or a Mason, a Methodist or a Presbyterian, or whether all the members be laboring men or whether all are boss potters, or, as the board is at present constituted, whether one half be men of affairs and the other half lawyers?

The members of this board are not vested with legislative powers. The general object and purpose of the institution is defined in its charter and cannot be altered, so that the board is powerless to discriminate against classes or individuals even if it were so minded. Why then insist upon a policy which can in no way subserve the interests of an institution of this kind, but may operate against it by the sacrifice of personal qualifications and fitness only to gratify some ambition?

SETTLE LABOR ROWS.

Object of Committee of Conciliation Appointed by Senator Hanna.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND A MEMBER

Also Bishop Potter, McVeagh, Mitchell, Sargent and Others—Civic Federation Executive Committee Also Members.

New York, March 21.—Senator Mark Hanna yesterday named the members of the committee on conciliation of the Civic Federation, whose appointment was provided for at the last meeting of the executive committee. According to the by-laws the committee was to consist of the officers of the executive committee.

M. A. Hanna, chairman; Samuel Gompers, first vice chairman; Oscar S. Straus, second vice chairman; Charles A. Moore, treasurer, and Ralph M. Easley, secretary, and nine men to be appointed by the chairman. His appointments are:

Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter, Franklin McVeagh, John Mitchell, Frank F. Sargent, James Duncan, J. Kruttschnitt, William H. Pfahler and Marcus M. Marks.

This committee is to take up threatened trouble between capitalists and workmen with a view to settling them.

MINERS' CONVENTION.

Eight-Hour Day Demanded in One of Resolutions Adopted.

Shamokin, Pa., March 21.—The most important feature of yesterday's session of the convention of districts numbers 1, 7 and 9, of the United Mineworkers of America, was the adoption at the afternoon session of several resolutions. They were the result of various alleged grievances announced in the convention by the different delegations and were presented by the committee on resolutions. Most of them were of sectional, rather than general, interest, but their tone was not the less emphatic. The first resolution adopted demanded an eight hour working day in all the collieries of the anthracite region. Among others adopted were these:

Demanding the recognition of mine committees by operators in the adjustment of disputes resulting in local strikes.

Declaring opposition to working with men not members of the mine workers' union.

Favoring arbitration of trade disputes.

Condemning the system of black-listing by companies of discharged employees.

The published statement that the replies of the operators to President Mitchell's request for a conference might be construed as a virtual recognition of the mine workers' union, Mr. Mitchell regards as incorrect. Referring to the letters of the presidents of the operating companies, Mr. Mitchell said:

"We do not regard them as recognition in any degree."

TRIED TO AVERT HOSTILITIES.

Otis Said It Was Hard to Keep the Peace While Filipinos Were Insulting Americans.

Washington, March 21.—General Otis yesterday resumed his testimony before the senate Philippine committee. The proceedings were in part:

General Otis denied that he led Aguinaldo to believe that the United States would not assume absolute sovereignty and governmental control over the islands. Asked what he meant by the statement in his letter that "rather than see the ships of the United States navy control the navigable waters of these islands and its army devastating their territory I prefer to advise my government not to send any more troops here." General Otis answered that that was his opinion because he did not want to see any war. "I wanted to conquer by peaceable means," said he, "but I gave the impression that there were troops waiting."

Was Trying to Keep the Peace.

General Otis said, answering an inquiry by Senator Hale, that had the government taken him at his word, not to send more troops, anarchy would have reigned throughout the island. He thought that his letter should be considered as a whole. "That was a period when I was laboring hard," said he, "to keep the peace and to keep our men and off-cers from paying attention to the results received from Philippine officers and insurgents."

Answering Senator Patterson, General Otis said that the commission of which General Hughes was a member, had stated to the representative of Aguinaldo that no concessions could be made without the sacrifice of some of the attributes of sovereignty.

General Otis declared that the Filipinos have no correct idea of liberty. "Liberty with them," said he, "is license."

A question by Senator Beveridge regarding the effect on the Filipinos of literature sent from the United States precipitated a lively discussion. General Otis said that when Mabini was brought in he had a pile of New York papers with him which had antagonized the sovereignty of the United States in the Philippines. "Did he have any of Senator Hoar's speeches?" inquired Senator Beveridge.

Hoar's Speeches All Over Islands.

"Oh, yes, those speeches were all over the islands," replied the witness.

Senator Allison, who was in the chair, said that he would exclude any allusion to senators' speeches.

"When the senator from Indiana," said Senator Patterson, "propounded that question it involved every senator who is standing by what he believes to be simple justice to the Filipinos. I do not propose to be assailed from behind a masked battery."

Senator Carmack said he wanted to take his part of the responsibility for saying that the war in the Philippines is "utterly and absolutely infamous and criminal. If any proof can be made that I am inciting Filipinos by such speeches," said he, "I want it done."

Beveridge finally withdrew his question.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. ## PHENOMENAL ESCAPE

CONTENTS OF A SHOT GUN FAILED TO KILL.

Discharged Into the Body and Head of a Lisbon Man Who Still Lives.

Paul Paisley, who left Lisbon a short time ago for Colorado, met with a shooting affair which should by all the laws which govern the action of a deadly shotgun have cost him his life. The following extract taken from the Riverside Daily Press:

"Mr. Paisley, with two friends went hunting in the neighborhood of Dick Young's bee ranch near Perris. After they had gone a little way out, the two other young fellows turned back, and Paisley went on alone about a mile and a half. Having fired one load from his muzzle loading double barreled shotgun he stopped to reload. He put in powder, then holding the muzzle of the gun against his side with his left elbow, reached around to his hip pocket with his right hand for the rest of the charge. Suddenly the barrel which had not been emptied discharged its contents into his side just below the left nipple, tearing a hole upward through the muscles, coming out above the nipple, and finally stopping in the skull back of the ear.

"Dr. Gill, who dressed the wound, says that ordinarily such a charge hitting a man on the skull would have blown his head off. But Paisley was not even unconscious. He put out the fire which the explosion had made in his coat, walked back the mile and a half to the wagon, drove to Riverside and had Dr. Gill dress the wound, then walked home. The next morning he walked to the doctor's office, and does not seem to be seriously incriminated by his wound. The doctor says he has seen some very narrow escapes on the battlefield, but never so close as this."

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

Peter Clunk, Lisbon, has been granted a $10 pension.

Isaac Anderson, a Steubenville liveryman, is reported to have gone insane.

Warren Berrine, a well known farmer living near Sharon, Pa., fell from a hay mow and was killed.

The homes of half a dozen Dillonvale miners were entered and robbed, trunks broken open and valuables taken.

Fire at the Forest City Sewer pipe plant, Toronto, destroyed the carpenter and blacksmith shop, causing $1,200 loss.

George Boles, the young Martin's Ferry man who shot and killed his father Monday morning, is out on bail to await the action of the grand jury. Bond was fixed at $500.

Mrs. John Neithamer, Niles, wife of the recently deceased chief of police of that town, died from poison taken with suicidal intent. She leaves besides her husband, three small children.

Alexander Fayer, Louis Harper and J. W. Wolf were badly burned in an explosion of powder which occurred at the fire clay mine of Park Bros., near Fallston. They are at New Brighton hospital.

A wholesale theft of tools and other articles from the idle plant of the Warren (O.) Pottery company led to the arrest of William Cook and the discovery of the tools at his home. Cook has served a term in the penitentiary for incendiarism.

The Belmont county authorities are yet ignorant of the whereabouts of Barney Devine and Leonard Stevens, the murderers who escaped from the county jail at St. Clairsville Monday night. It is now believed the criminals will never be recaptured.

The Quickest Cough Eradicator. (From the Shortsville, N. Y., Enterprise.)

This is the month that one takes cold so easily and quickly—secures that hacking cough, which is so persistently disagreeable as we know by personal experience. And we also know that the quickest eradicator of such cough has been Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and which has been our staunch standby for several years. This is no paid "puff," but merely a just recognition for an invariable remedy for for coughs, colds, and all lung affections, and like the editor, it has scores of other staunch friends in this town. This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

Street Commissioner Bryan has issued his annual notice to property owners to clean up their premises and the streets, alleys and sidewalks adjacent to them. Such a notice ought to be unnecessary. If anybody thinks it is, he is either blind or has not looked around him. The city is disgracefully dirty in almost every quarter. The severe winter, which has prevented the removal of accumulations, and the absence of the garbage collector on his regular trips are both partially accountable. But every man is responsible for the rubbish that has been piled up about his property and should heed the warning of Commissioner Bryan or be made to heed it. The spring cleaning should be thorough. Every citizen of East Liverpool is proud of his city as a hustling, enterprising, business town. Let each one do his part and the street cleaning department keep busy also in time we may all be able to be proud of it as a clean and attractive city as well. But at present the man who would boast of the neat appearance of East Liverpool's streets and alleys would be in danger of being summoned before Judge Boone to undergo an inquest as to his sanity.

A government agent talks enthusiastically of agricultural prospects in Alaska, saying that the territory is fully capable of producing food to feed 3,000,000 persons. But until the agricultural resources of the warmer regions of the earth are more fully developed, most of the digging and spading that is done in Alaska will probably continue to be done by the gold seekers.

We have no sympathy for the Muskingum college students who got shot while "cutting up." Students who conduct themselves like burglars and highwaymen and get the treatment ordinarily meted out to such gentry get exactly what they deserve. It is no excuse to say they are merely boys.
Boys who know enough to go to college ought to begin to act like men if they ever intend to do so.

The story that Bryan is about to boom Tom Johnson for the presidency is naturally received with incredulity.
When you catch the distinguished Nebraskan booming anybody except the perpetual candidate, you may know he has changed his nature completely.

Santos Dumont is enthusiastic over his trip to the United States and the proposed contest of air ships at St.
Louis. He is aware that soft spots on which to fall are very numerous out that way.

Rural mail delivery is extending,
and postal affairs are otherwise moving in the right direction. If the abuses in second-class matter are lopped off with a firm hand.

Henry Watterson does not like the present occupant of the white house.
The man whom Watterson would approve edits a Democratic newspaper in Louisville.

Edward H. Green is dead. He lived 81 years in this world and few persons were aware of it. Those who knew him knew him only as Hetty Green's husband.

Discussions and surveys of the isthmian canal date back 50 years.
There would be nothing precipitate in beginning now the work of actual construction.

Each successive defeat is explained by the English war experts as due to several causes, but the world goes right on thinking it due to the Boers.

Senator Hoar's speeches in defense of the Filipinos did no good in this country and were productive of no end of mischief in the Philippines.

It develops that large numbers of dead men are on the voting lists in St. Louis, probably for the reason that dead men tell no tales.

The people of Pittsburg are making as much fuss about their water supply as if water were their usual beverage.

Attempts to imitate Tillman don't go down with the British parliament.

AT THE THEATER

"A triumph in the theatrical art" has become technical with critics and newspaper men in describing Frank Keenan's work at the close of the second act in his new production of "Hon.
John Grigsby." When Hon. John
Grigsby learns the condition of his nomination the audience becomes spellbound and silence prevails, save for the ticking of the old office clock on the mantel piece. The scene is a most impressive one for its naturalness and originality. Mr. Keenan and his conscientious company will undoubtedly be greeted by a large and fashionable audience at the Grand tonight.

A QUESTION OF BUYING

The House Calcutta Road Cars Run into Presented the Street Railway.

"To buy or not to buy" is a matter that is agitating the minds of the officials of the East Liverpool Railway company and also the heirs of the Wucherer estate, owning the property at Calcutta road and Wall street, where cars running away on Calcutta road have had a habit of stopping suddenly. A conference was held yesterday afternoon, John Wucherer representing the estate and L. W. Healy the street railway company.

It is said the company stood ready to purchase the property for about $2,500, but the heirs wanted $6,500.
This price seemed too high for the company and another conference is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.

The company is reported to have offered to make further improvements on the Wucherer property, by the building of an 18-inch wall about the yard and the placing of an additional derailing switch at a point yet to be determined between Wall street and Grant street. These are matters that are to be considered at the next conference.

NEW EDIFICE

TO BE BUILT FOR SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. C. L. V. McKee, Pastor, Makes the Announcement—Present House Too Small.

"A new Second Presbyterian church will be built in the West End," was the statement made by Rev. C. L. V. McKee, pastor of the church of that denomination in this city, to a News Review reporter yesterday afternoon.

"Our main object in having a new building erected," said Rev. Mr. McKee, "is that our present place of worship is not large enough to accommodate our membership, which is steadily increasing."

As to the location of the church or just when the construction of it is to be commenced Rev. Mr. McKee was unable to unfold anything definite, but for several excellent reasons it is very likely that it will be erected at some place near the old one.

Rev. Mr. McKee has been pastor of the Second Presbyterian church since its infancy and incidentally has been in the city for a longer time than any other minister now living in Wellsville, which fact is quite a recommendation and shows conclusively that he has been very successful. He has worked arduously and with sincerity for the members of his church and as a result the church is one of the most prosperous in the city and has a very bright future.

NO MORE SUITS

ARE LIKELY AS A RESULT OF THIRD STREET FILL.

City Said to Have Compromised With the Holliday Heirs for $200.

City Solicitor Wells, when asked by a reporter whether or not the Holliday heirs intend filing suit against the city, as did the Lawson brothers, stated that he thought a suit would be avoided in their case, as they are now favorably considering a settlement as proposed by the city council. The property belonging to the Holliday heirs, which was undoubtedly damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars by the filling in on Third street, is located at the corner of Third and Lisbon streets. It has always rented well and is considered a valuable piece of real estate.

The settlement in this case will strike the city council much more favorably than in the Lawson case, as it is said that the agreement practically closed will let the city off by the payment of $200 or by the superintending and paying for the raising of the building and placing a foundation under it.

It is not likely that any other property owners along Third street will enter suit against the city for damages, because they agree in the opinion that their property was materially improved by the fill.

Erecting a Three-Story Shop. Contractor G. F. Mardock is building a three-story carpenter shop on the rear of his lot, Main and Seventh streets. Business in his line has increased so materially that he found it necessary to have two shops at his command.

Moved to Yellow Creek. George McBane and family have moved to Yellow Creek, where he will superintend the operation of the new electrical machines installed in the coal bank at that place. Mr. McBane is an expert electrician.

morning with Ollie Pinkerton for the Canton workhouse. Pinkerton is a noted booze fighter and was given a 60-day sentence by Mayor Dennis.

BUILDING NEW ROAD

Work Being Pushed on a Switch to the New Fire Clay Plant.

Thomas H. Silvers, the banker, is superintending the construction of the new railroad leading from the C. & P. railroad out to the spot selected by the stockholders of the Champion Fire Brick and Clay company for the new plant. There are a dozen men in the construction gang and the work is being pushed rapidly.

The road will run parallel with the old route to the Lawson oil field, but will be elevated to a distance of at least 10 feet.

EAST END PARK

Improvement of That Section of the City Promises to Be Rapid.

That portion of the East End which is to be converted into a park and residence district has been surveyed and the stakes driven. A. R. Wells, who is at the head of the company which has announced its intention of so improving this section of the city, is very busy formulating the plans for the new buildings.

At least 20 modern houses are to be erected, and it is thought work will be commenced upon them in a few days.

HAD A COLD BATH

Colored Deckhands Got an Accidental Fall Into the River.

There was a report in circulation around the upper wharf this morning that two negro deckhands were thrown accidentally into the river off the steamer Greenwood and that they narrowly escaped drowning. As the story goes the boat had made a landing and was backing out and, as is the custom, the plank was being hoisted when it struck the negroes and precipitated them into the water.

By the aid of ropes and hooks they were rescued from their unhappy predicament.

PUNISH GEN. MILES?

Inquiry as to Whether Roosevelt and Root Have Grounds For Action.

CRITICISED ROOT AND CORBIN,

Without Mentioning Names, Before Senate Committee—Said He Could Name Men Now Who Would Get Positions, if Hawley Bill Passed.

Washington, March 21.—The news of General Miles' statement yesterday before the military committee of the senate excited great interest at the war department when it became known there late in the day. There was a very general inquiry as to whether, by passing the criticisms upon various officials, as reported in the press, General Miles had not exposed himself to disciplinary treatment. The answer to this must be based on the exact amount of privilege which attaches to testimony given before a committee of congress. This question arose last week in the course of General Hughes' testimony before the senate Philippine commission, when the general sought to escape answering questions which would involve criticism by him of his superior officer, General Otis. It appeared that there was a variance of opinion in the committee itself as to how far General Hughes was at liberty to violate army rules and proprieties, even in answer to committee questions, and the question itself was left unsettled.

While General Miles did not expect when he gave his testimony that it would be made public in any form, he is now willing that it shall be published by the committee, making himself the broad statement that the statements which were given to the press as those made by himself before the committee were misrepresentations, totally unwarranted and unauthorized.

Miles' Threat to Retire.
According to reliable information, received by the Associated Press, General Nelson A. Miles yesterday told the senate committee on military affairs that if the bill introduced by Senator Hawley at the instance of the war department for the organization of a general staff for the army should become a law he would decline to longer hold his commission. The reason he gave for the statement is that the bill is utterly subversive of the interests of the military establishment, and he said he would not be a party to such a proceeding to the extent even of continuing to hold his place.

The statement was made in the course of a prolonged hearing by the committee, which was conducted behind closed doors and in which General Miles touched upon a variety of subjects connected with the army. The portion of the bill to which he directed his special criticism is that contained in section 7, reading as follows: "That from and after the passage of this act the senior general officer of the army shall be assigned to command such portion of the army as the president may direct, or be detailed to duty in the general staff corps. All duties prescribed by law for the commanding general of the army shall be performed by the chief of general staff or other general officer, designated by the secretary of war—provided that as long as the present lieutenant general of the army keeps on the active list he shall be the chief of the general staff, and upon the separation from active service of the said lieutenant general of the army, said office, except as herein provided, shall cease and determine."

Would Destroy Unity of Army.

General Miles said that if this provision should become a law it would have the effect of destroying the unity of the army, and he read numerous authorities, including Napoleon, Wellington, Washington, Cass and Grant, to show the necessity of having one head to the army and of controlling authority. His own experience and observation had, he said, had the effect of confirming these views, and he gave an illustration of its beneficial effect in time of emergency, instancing the beginning of the war with Spain. "I heard at midnight," he said, "that the Spanish fleet had been located definitely at Santiago, and I hastened to the home of Secretary Long, where the news was confirmed. Shafter was then at Tampa and I sat down there, in the secretary's house, and wrote a dispatch directing him to start immediately for Santiago, with the result that the army was soon on its way to the point where its presence was needed. Suppose," he added, exhibiting the message which he had sent to General Shafter, "I had been compelled to get around to a dozen or more majors as many colonels and any number of generals constituting a general staff."

Then he added that in all probability the senior general of the army would not under the provision he had quoted have been in a position to do anything, and he called attention to the clause relieving him (the senior general) of command and making it possible for any other officer to be appointed. He declared that under section 7 it would be competent to one day promote a captain to the position of a brigadier and the next day make him chief of staff, thus practically placing a captain at the head of the army. Warming up somewhat, he asserted that the bill was calculated to accomplish no purpose except to allow the secretary of war and the adjutant general to promote the interests of their personal favorites.

General Miles was questioned as to the reasons for locating the American army of occupation at Tampa and holding it there so long with the resulting congestion.

First Intended to Occupy Havana.

Replying to the first question, he said that it was because of the order to occupy Havana. The delay was due, he said, to the fact that the American army was supplied with only 64 rounds of ammunition, which would not have been sufficient for more than half an hour of fighting. Considering that Havana was one of the best fortified cities in the world, he said that to have attacked it would have been foolhardy in the extreme. He declined, however, to criticize the then secretary of war, General Alger, for the condition of affairs, saying that probably any one else in the position would have done about what he did. He laid the general blame for this condition of unpreparedness at the door of congress.

Could Name the Appointees.

In the course of his remarks General Miles told the committee in confidence that with the bill a law he could now name the men who would hold the places of honor provided under it, but the committee did not ask for the names.

The omission by the president of his usual ride yesterday afternoon and the fact that he and Secretary Root were in conference for nearly four hours, led to the supposition that they were discussing General Miles' testimony. This, however, was an erroneous conclusion, for they were talking about an army regulation and the secretary was unaware of the testimony until he returned to the war department, very late in the afternoon.

Root Says Miles Opposes Bill.

Secretary Root exhibited little feeling when his attention was called to the proceedings before the committee. He remarked quietly that he was very sorry Lieut. Gen. Miles opposed this bill. He pointed out that under section 7, of which Miles complained, the lieutenant general would have greatly enlarged powers in army management, instead of being restricted in his function, as he supposed. As to the question whether Gen. Miles had said anything which would require action at the hands of the department or the president, the secretary firmly declined to express any opinion, for the present at least, preferring to wait an official copy of the testimony before he made any decision.

PUNISH GEN. MILES?

Inquiry as to Whether Roosevelt and Root Have Grounds For Action.

CRITICISED ROOT AND CORBIN,

Without Mentioning Names, Before Senate Committee—Said He Could Name Men Now Who Would Get Positions, if Hawley Bill Passed.

Washington, March 21.—The news of General Miles' statement yesterday before the military committee of the senate excited great interest at the war department when it became known there late in the day. There was a very general inquiry as to whether, by passing the criticisms upon various officials, as reported in the press, General Miles had not exposed himself to disciplinary treatment. The answer to this must be based on the exact amount of privilege which attaches to testimony given before a committee of congress. This question arose last week in the course of General Hughes' testimony before the senate Philippine commission, when the general sought to escape answering questions which would involve criticism by him of his superior officer, General Otis. It appeared that there was a variance of opinion in the committee itself as to how far General Hughes was at liberty to violate army rules and proprieties, even in answer to committee questions, and the question itself was left unsettled.

While General Miles did not expect when he gave his testimony that it would be made public in any form, he is now willing that it shall be published by the committee, making himself the broad statement that the statements which were given to the press as those made by himself before the committee were misrepresentations, totally unwarranted and unauthorized.

Miles' Threat to Retire.
According to reliable information received by the Associated Press, General Nelson A. Miles yesterday told the senate committee on military affairs that if the bill introduced by Senator Hawley at the instance of the war department for the organization of a general staff for the army should become a law he would decline to longer hold his commission. The reason he gave for the statement is that the bill is utterly subversive of the interests of the military establishment, and he said he would not be a party to such a proceeding to the extent even of continuing to hold his place.

The statement was made in the course of a prolonged hearing by the committee, which was conducted behind closed doors and in which General Miles touched upon a variety of subjects connected with the army. The portion of the bill to which he directed his special criticism is that contained in section 7, reading as follows: "That from and after the passage of this act the senior general officer of the army shall be assigned to command such portion of the army as the president may direct, or be detailed to duty in the general staff corps. All duties prescribed by law for the commanding general of the army shall be performed by the chief of general staff or other general officer, designated by the secretary of war—provided that as long as the present lieutenant general of the army keeps on the active list he shall be the chief of the general staff, and upon the separation from active service of the said lieutenant general of the army, said office, except as herein provided, shall cease and determine."

Would Destroy Unity of Army.

General Miles said that if this provision should become a law it would have the effect of destroying the unity of the army, and he read numerous authorities, including Napoleon, Wellington, Washington, Cass and Grant, to show the necessity of having one head to the army and of controlling authority. His own experience and observation had, he said, had the effect of confirming these views, and he gave an illustration of its beneficial effect in time of emergency, instancing the beginning of the war with Spain. "I heard at midnight," he said, "that the Spanish fleet had been located definitely at Santiago, and I hastened to the home of Secretary Long, where the news was confirmed. Shafter was then at Tampa and I sat down there, in the secretary's house, and wrote a dispatch directing him to start immediately for Santiago, with the result that the army was soon on its way to the point where its presence was needed. Suppose," he added, exhibiting the message which he had sent to General Shafter, "I had been compelled to get around to a dozen or more majors as many colonels and any number of generals constituting a general staff."

Then he added that in all probability the senior general of the army would not under the provision he had quoted have been in a position to do anything, and he called attention to the clause relieving him (the senior general) of command and making it possible for any other officer to be appointed. He declared that under section 7 it would be competent to one day promote a captain to the position of a brigadier and the next day make him chief of staff, thus practically placing a captain at the head of the army. Warming up somewhat, he asserted that the bill was calculated to accomplish no purpose except to allow the secretary of war and the adjutant general to promote the interests of their personal favorites.

In the course of his remarks General Miles told the committee in confidence that with the bill a law he could now name the men who would hold the places of honor provided under it, but the committee did not ask for the names.

The omission by the president of his usual rifle yesterday afternoon, and the fact that he and Secretary Root were in conference for nearly four hours, led to the supposition that they were discussing General Miles' testimony. ## OVERTURES TO HANNA

Made by Daugherty—Their Representatives Held Conference.

GEN. DICK PLEDGED NOTHING.

To Daugherty's Representative, Huling. So He Said—Latter Admitted Daugherty Wanted to Run For Governor.

Columbus, O., March 21.—John R. Malloy, who returned yesterday from Washington, gave out an authorized statement of what took place at the conference between Cyrus Huling and General Dick, representing Senator Hanna, at Dick's house in Washington last week, which shows that it was all in the way of overtures from the Daugherty faction.

In order to cultivate friendly relations between the two factions, which presumably meant the support of Hanna for re-election to the senate by the Daugherty faction, Huling wanted the Hanna faction to let Daugherty be chairman of the coming state convention, State Treasurer I. B. Cameron, of Columbiana county, to be state campaign chairman this year; renominate Judge Williams, of the supreme court, and wanted Limus Kauffman, of this city, for state food commissioner.

Huling admitted that Daugherty wanted to be the candidate for governor next year and suggested that Dick would probably not want that nomination, as it would embarrass Hanna, who would then be candidate for the senate.

JOHN DILLON WAS SUSPENDED.

Refused to Withdraw an Expression Calling Chamberlain a "D—Liar."

London, March 21.—During debate in the house of commons, yesterday afternoon, Joseph Chamberlain, in replying to a speech by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, in the conduct of the Boer war, accused the opposition of "malignant slander."

The speaker, Sir William Court Gully, here intervened and declared that the term "malignant slander" was unparliamentary.

Both Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Mr. Chamberlain thereupon withdrew the words amid cheers.

Mr. Chamberlain, proceeding, referred to the Boers who are fighting on the British side, when John Dillon (Irish Nationalist) interjected, "They are traitors," on which Mr. Chamberlain retorted: "The honorable gentleman is a good judge of traitors."

A scene of great confusion ensued. When order was partially restored Mr. Dillon demanded a ruling on Mr. Chamberlain's words. The speaker said:

"An honorable member spoke of soldiers serving under the British flag as traitors. I deprecated the interruption and I deprecated the retort of the other member."

Mr. Dillon then said:

"I will tell the right honorable member that he is a d—liar."

Dillon refused to withdraw the term and was suspended by a vote of the house.

TWIN TROUBLES

They Are Often Together These Days. They Work Havoc All over the Country and in East Liverpool.

Weak, nervous, the digestion out of order. That is what ails a host of people. It comes about in this way. First from overwork or other causes, the nerves are burdened beyond endurance, nerve waste is not replaced, nerve force is weakened. Then the stomach loses its nerve controlling power, and indigestion follows with failing strength. When first Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills came to East Liverpool, people could hardly believe that this great medicine should remove these troubles. Now it is an accepted fact because of its cure of very stubborn cases no other medicine would influence. Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, O., says: "One of my family was very nervous—subject to nervous spells—weak and irritable—could not sleep and the digestion was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets. The result was splendid. The medicine built her up, enriched the blood, made the nerves strong, gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect. The old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy, and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

OCCUPIED THE MOST ATTENTION,

Did the So Called Specialties, in the Stock Market, on Thursday. Some Features.

New York, March 21.—The so-called specialties still occupied the largest share of attention in the stock market Thursday. Their movements were not quite so wide nor so feverishly erratic as Wednesday, but there was still an eccentric irregularity in this portion of the market. As for the standard stocks that usually make up the bulk of the trading by reason of their large capitalization and representative character, they were neglected and sluggish, as for some time past. There was some heaviness among the anthracite carriers, caused by the rather threatening attitude assumed by the miners' conference at Shamokin, but the declines in that group were limited to fractions, and good recoveries were made. There was good support in St. Paul without any explanation for the buying, which gave rise to the supposition that the support was part of the plan to facilitate the operations of speculative pools elsewhere in the market. Colorado Fuel was again a conspicuous figure and touched Wednesday's high level again at 107, closing with a net gain of 4½ after a very erratic course during the day. This movement seemed to have a sympathetic effect upon Tennessee Coal and Hocking Coal, but the United States Steel stocks continued neglected and heavy, as they have been ever since the proposed bond issue was announced. Sugar was sold early on proffered disappointment over the terms of the bill reducing the Cuban sugar tariff, but later it rose strongly, and closed with a net gain of a point. Amalgamated Copper continued quiet and was bought by the shorts to cover yielding in a net gain of about a point. The market closed quite active, but irregular.

Wishes Philippine Affairs Fixed According to American Interests.

Rome, March 21.—Mgr. Sbarretti, the papal delegate to the Philippines, who is on his way to the Philippines, will make a brief stop at Washington, in order to consult the United States government in connection with Philippine affairs. The vatican authorities intend to hold the matter of a hierarchy in abeyance until the situation in the Philippines becomes more settled.

It is the vatican's desire to finally adjust matters in the archipelago in accordance with American views and interests. Therefore, it has been decided to appoint no more Spaniards among the new bishops. As a result of this decision, Mgr. Nozaleda, archbishop of Manila, now here, has tendered his resignation and will proceed to Spain, where he will hereafter reside.

SWEEPING IN IMPORTANCE.

Such Is Ohio Supreme Court Decision in Toledo Case.

Columbus, March 21.—The supreme court, in an opinion involving the constitutionality of a law authorizing the city of Toledo to issue bridge bonds, handed down yesterday, takes the ground that laws resting on the classification of cities which are purely local in their application, are special legislation, and that they cannot be justified, except by an emergency.

The decisions of both the common pleas and circuit courts, which sustained the Toledo law, are reversed. The opinion of the supreme court is regarded as sweeping in its importance.

The soldier claims to have bought them from another soldier, who found them in an ash barrel.

OVERTURES TO HANNA

Made by Daugherty—Their Representatives Held Conference.

GEN. DICK PLEDGED NOTHING.

To Daugherty's Representative, Huling, So He Said—Latter Admitted Daugherty Wanted to Run For Governor.

Columbus, O., March 21.—John R. Malloy, who returned yesterday from Washington, gave out an authorized statement of what took place at the conference between Cyrus Huling and General Dick, representing Senator Hanna, at Dick's house in Washington last week, which shows that it was all in the way of overtures from the Daugherty faction.

In order to cultivate friendly relations between the two factions, which presumably meant the support of Hanna for re-election to the senate by the Daugherty faction, Huling wanted the Hanna faction to let Daugherty be chairman of the coming state convention, State Treasurer I. B. Cameron, of Columbiana county, to be state campaign chairman this year; renominate Judge Williams, of the supreme court, and wanted Limus Kauffman, of this city, for state food commissioner.

Huling admitted that Daugherty wanted to be the candidate for governor next year and suggested that Dick would probably not want that nomination, as it would embarrass Hanna, who would then be candidate for the senate.

General Dick says he drew out the Daugherty hand without pledging anything.

JOHN DILLON WAS SUSPENDED.

Refused to Withdraw an Expression Calling Chamberlain a "D—Liar."

London, March 21.—During debate in the house of commons, yesterday afternoon, Joseph Chamberlain, in reply to a speech by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, in the conduct of the Boer war, accused the opposition of "malignant slander."

The speaker, Sir William Court Gully, here intervened and declared that the term "malignant slander" was unparliamentary.

Both Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Mr. Chamberlain thereupon withdrew the words amid cheers.

Mr. Chamberlain, proceeding, referred to the Boers who are fighting on the British side, when John Dillon (Irish Nationalist) interjected, "They are traitors," on which Mr. Chamberlain retorted: "The honorable gentleman is a good judge of traitors."

A scene of great confusion ensued. When order was partially restored Mr. Dillon demanded a ruling on Mr. Chamberlain's words. The speaker said:

"An honorable member spoke of soldiers serving under the British flag as traitors. I deprecated the interruption and I deprecated the report of the other member."

Mr. Dillon then said:

"I will tell the right honorable member that he is a d—liar."

Dillon refused to withdraw the term and was suspended by a vote of the house.

TWIN TROUBLES

They Are Often Together These Days. They Work Havoc All over the Country and in East Liverpool.

Weak, nervous, the digestion out of order. That is what ails a host of people. It comes about in this way. First from overwork or other causes, the nerves are burdened beyond endurance, nerve waste is not replaced, nerve force is weakened. Then the stomach loses its nerve controlling power, and indigestion follows with failing strength. When first Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills came to East Liverpool, people could hardly believe that this great medicine should remove these troubles. Now it is an accepted fact because of its cure of very stubborn cases no other medicine would influence. Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, O., says: "One of my family was very nervous—subject to nervous spells—weak and irritable—could not sleep and the digestion was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets. The result was splendid. The medicine built her up, enriched the blood, made the nerves strong, gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect. The old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy, and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

OCCUPIED THE MOST ATTENTION.

Did the So Called Specialists, in the Stock Market, on Thursday.

Some of Features.

New York, March 21.—The so-called specialists still occupied the largest share of attention in the stock market Thursday. Their movements were not quite so wide nor so feverishly erratic as Wednesday, but there was still an eccentric irregularity in this portion of the market. As for the standard stocks that usually make up the bulk of the trading by reason of their large capitalization and representative character, they were neglected and sluggish, as for some time past. There was some heaviness among the anthracite carriers, caused by the rather threatening attitude assumed by the miners' conference at Shamokin, but the declines in that group were limited to fractions, and good recoveries were made. There was good support in St. Paul without any explanation for the buying, which gave rise to the supposition that the support was part of the plan to facilitate the operations of speculative pools elsewhere in the market. Colorado Fuel was again a conspicuous figure and touched Wednesday's high level again at 107, closing with a net gain of 4½, after a very erratic course during the day. This movement seemed to have a sympathetic effect upon Tennessee Coal and Hocking Coal, but the United States Steel stocks continued neglected and heavy, as they have been ever since the proposed bond issue was announced. Sugar was sold early on proffered disappointment over the terms of the bill reducing the Cuban sugar tariff, but later it rose strongly, and closed with a net gain of a point. Amalgamated Copper continued quite active and was bought by the shorts to cover yielding in a net gain of about a point. The market closed quite active, but irregular.

ROCK SPRINGS RAILWAY REJECTS COUNCIL'S OFFER.

Not Disposed to Accept a 25-Year Franchise—Street Paving Estimates.

Chester council was given a hard blow at the meeting last night when J. Howard Maxwell, of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs Street Railway company, arose and in a quiet but impressive manner stated that the railway company had decided not to accept the proposition made by council in regard to the franchise granting the company the right of way for laying a track out First and up Carolina avenue.

Mr. Maxwell said: "The company has well considered your proposition and it has decided that to accept it would be folly. The company now has a perpetual franchise over a very good route and it would be poor judgment to accept for only 25 years, with other drawbacks equally as preposterous. The company bears no malice against council as it was simply a business proposition on which we could not agree."

It was several minutes before the councilmen recovered from the shock. They could not understand why a company should so completely ignore their well-weighted proposition.

As a result of the refusal it is quite evident that if a bridge is erected at First street there will be but one concern called upon to pay the expenses, and of course that is the town. It would have been nice if the railway company had agreed to pay at least $500 of the expense.

The paving ordinance prepared by Solicitor Marshall was read and passed after being amended so as to read: "After property owners are notified, the first payment shall fall due in 30 days; the second payment in six months; the third payment in one year, and the final payment in 18 months." Only Mr. Wetzel voted no.

Engineer Boyd submitted an estimate on the cost of paving and improving Carolina avenue from Marks Run bridge to First street. The estimate was: Grading, $2,250; dressed curbing, $4,972; rough curbing, $126.75; paving, $21,550. The engineer was instructed to make an estimate on the paving of First street and on a fill to be placed instead of a bridge.

A franchise granting the Bell Telephone company the privilege of constructing poles at places designated on the streets, was read and referred. Several objections were raised to the franchise.

Several small bills were ordered paid.

The solicitor was ordered to draw up an ordinance providing for the granting of a bill poster's license to W. Bridge & Son, of East Liverpool.

Yours Truly,

ROCK SPRINGS RAILWAY REJECTS COUNCIL'S OFFER.

Not Disposed to Accept a 25-Year Franchise—Street Paving Estimates.

Chester council was given a hard blow at the meeting last night when J. Howard Maxwell, of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs Street Railway company, arose and in a quiet but impressive manner stated that the railway company had decided not to accept the proposition made by council in regard to the franchise granting the company the right of way for laying a track out First and up Carolina avenue.

Mr. Maxwell said: "The company has well considered your proposition and it has decided that to accept it would be folly. The company now has a perpetual franchise over a very good route and it would be poor judgment to accept for only 25 years, with other drawbacks equally as preposterous. The company bears no malice against council as it was simply a business proposition on which we could not agree."

It was several minutes before the councilmen recovered from the shock. They could not understand why a company should so completely ignore their well-weighted proposition.

As a result of the refusal it is quite evident that if a bridge is erected at First street there will be but one concern called upon to pay the expenses, and of course that is the town. It would have been nice if the railway company had agreed to pay at least $500 of the expense.

The paving ordinance prepared by Solicitor Marshall was read and passed after being amended so as to read: "After property owners are notified, the first payment shall fall due in 30 days; the second payment in six months; the third payment in one year, and the final payment in 18 months." Only Mr. Wetzel voted no.

Engineer Boyd submitted an estimate on the cost of paving and improving Carolina avenue from Marks Run bridge to First street. The estimate was: Grading, $2,250; dressed curbing, $4,972; rough curbing, $126.75; paving, $21,550. The engineer was instructed to make an estimate on the paving of First street and on a fill to be placed instead of a bridge.

A franchise granting the Bell Telephone company the privilege of constructing poles at places designated on the streets, was read and referred. Several objections were raised to the franchise.

Several small bills were ordered paid.

The solicitor was ordered to draw up an ordinance providing for the granting of a bill poster's license to W. Bridge & Son, of East Liverpool.

AN ALLEGED INSANE PERSON FATALLY BURNED IN A CELL

Mrs. Mary Ann Robinson, of This City, Dies a Horrible Death.

SANITY WAS QUESTIONED

And She Was Awaiting Trial In Probate Court at Lisbon.

SET HER CLOTHING ON FIRE

And Was So Badly Burned Before She Could Be Assisted That Death Ensued—Suspected of Burning John Parker's House.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—Mrs. Mary Ann Robinson, who was examined yesterday by physicians as to sanity, was fatally burned yesterday afternoon in her cell in the county jail.

Each cell in the jail is provided with a small stove. Mrs. Robinson attempted to brush some orange peel from the lap of her calico dress and brushed her skirt into the blaze.

In an instant she was enveloped in flames. She rushed into the hall, arousing everybody in the jail by her cries. Robert Nace came out of his cell and wrapped a big overcoat about her. Mrs. Leonard enveloped the woman's limbs in a blanket but help was too late. Mrs. Robinson's left side and limbs were terribly burned.

Doctors Marquis and Calhoun were summoned and pronounced her injuries dangerous. All possible effort was made to save the sufferer's life, but her strength was not sufficient to endure the nervous shock and exhaustion. She died this morning at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Robinson was brought to the jail on Tuesday, her sanity being doubted by her friends.

The house of John Parker, two miles northeast of Wellsville, was burned on Monday. Mrs. Robinson was suspected of starting the fire. Her examination yesterday was puzzling to the medical men, who doubted her insanity.

The woman is said to have been greatly addicted to the use of liquor, and was much weakened both physically and mentally in consequence. So far the sheriff has been unable to communicate with her relatives.

THE DEAD WOMAN

Was 50 Years Old And Lived Here Before Going to Parker's.

John Parker, whose home on Rowe's run is alleged to have been set fire to by Mrs. Robinson, is employed at the Lythe sewer pipe factory. When seen this morning he said he had secured a Mrs. Reed, of East Liverpool, to watch the Robinson woman, who was staying at his house, but after the fire nothing had been seen of Mrs. Reed. Previous to being taken to Lisbon Mrs. Robinson made her home for several months with Parker.

For about three years she worked at the National house in this city. She was twice married, her last husband being Thomas Humphreys, who died recently in England, but she was generally known as Mrs. Robinson. Last summer she was ill at the Parker home and Mrs. Reed was called to take care of her.

Mrs. Robinson was 50 years old and came here from England about 20 years ago. She has no surviving relatives in this country so far as known.

C. & P. OFFICIALS

Pass Through the City on a Tour of Inspection—Not of Official Importance.

A special train bearing officials of the C. & P. railroad on a tour of inspection passed through East Liverpool this morning, among the party being Supt. W. H. Scriven; Trainmaster Frank Heller; Chief Dispatcher T. J. Rogers and W. J. Sullivan, chief clerk of the superintendent.

The gentlemen declared there was no official significance attached to the mission here.

A VERY STUPID JOKE

Played on a Lisbon Grocer Cost Large Sum in Telephone Tolls.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—Clarence J. Brinker, a young grocer of Lisbon, yesterday received notice to appear before the Columbiana County Association of Law in the common pleas court room to answer charges preferred by the dairy and food commissioner for selling a glazed coffee which is under the commission's ban. The notice was signed "Commissioner for the Eighteenth District" and was on the clerk of court's stationery.

Brinker at once called up the branch office of the Pittsburg concern selling the coffee and asked what he should do.

The news of Brinker's summons reached other grocers and the particular brand of coffee rapidly disappeared from the shelves. Brinker was told by the Pittsburg concern, after a conference by telephone with the head office in New York, to fight the case, pleading not guilty, saying the firm would bear all expenses. So Judge J. G. Moore examined the summons and with Brinker appeared in the court room, only to find no one there or in the clerk's office who knew anything of the matter. The coffee is still off the grocers' shelves, and the grocers' association wonders who is to pay the telephone messages. It was a costly practical joke.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC

SCORE OF CASES IN PLEASANT HEIGHTS DISTRICT.

In Several Instances Three And Four Members of a Family Are Afflicted.

Pleasant Heights is suffering from an epidemic of measles. No less than 20 cases have developed since Sunday, and new ones are reported every day.

The malady has taken a peculiar course, however, and none of those afflicted have been seriously ill.

In several instances three and four of a family have been down with the disease at the same time. It may be that the school will close if the epidemic continues.

BROOKMAN CASE

ARGUMENT ON DEMURRER HEARD THIS AFTERNOON.

No Decision Probable in the Matter Until Next Week.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—The demurrer to the indictment of D. S. Brookman, manager of the Wellsville sheet mill, was argued in common pleas court this afternoon.

The court did not render a decision but expects to do so on Thursday next.

CASE CONTINUED

Trial of Suit Against the Pennsylvania Delayed—C. & P. to Be Defendant.

The case of the Puritan Land company, of the East End, against the Pennsylvania company, which was to have been heard at Lisbon yesterday, has been deferred until the next term of court. Solicitor Kerr, of the Pennsylvania company, was absent from court, and that was one of the reasons the case was continued. Another reason a continuance was asked was that the Pennsylvania company in making the deal acted for the C. & P. railroad company, and it was desired that the last named company be made defendant in the action.

Attorney Mullins, of the railroad counsel, was present, and said the station would have been built had not operations been stopped by council. The contract between the railroad company and the land company stipulates that the station should be built on the lots purchased and not on a portion of the alley.

The defense was granted leave to make the C. & P. a party defendant.

AN INSANE MAN

Taken to Jail Struggling Violently to Get Free From His Captors.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—Owen Frederick was brought to jail yesterday from Washingtonville by Deputy Sheriff Allison, assisted by James Lowe, of East Liverpool.

Frederick is alleged to be insane and was examined in probate court late this afternoon. He is a man of powerful build and struggled violently to escape from the officers.

ALLEGED ROBBERY BY TWO WOMEN

The Victim Whose Cash Is Missing Refuses to File An Affidavit.

HIS WIFE TAKES A HAND

Putting the Officers at Work Upon the Case—The Man Says He Was Drugged in a House on Franklin Street.

Chatting pleasantly with two females whom he had accidentally met, Joshua Haught, residing in California hollow, was robbed of about $15 Wednesday evening. Though the police were notified of the robbery soon after it occurred, little publicity has been given the case for the reason that no arrests have yet been made.

According to Haught's story of the affair the officers have a hard clue to work on in running down the guilty parties. He refuses to file an affidavit against anyone for the reason that he is unable to swear who took the money. All he knows of the matter is that his cash disappeared without his consent.

On leaving home Wednesday afternoon Haught placed $13 in his trousers pocket. He is positive as to the amount of the money he had when relieved and declares he was not intoxicated at the time. He does insist, however, that he was drugged and while in a stupor his friends took advantage of him.

In explaining the case to the officers Haught said that soon after leaving home on the day he lost his cash he went to a liquor store where he took one drink. Leaving the barroom he claims he next went to a house on Franklin street, near Seventh, where he met two well known young men whose reputations do not stand high in police circles. The fellows were entertaining two females who conduct the house and Haught invited them all to take a drink with him.

One of the women went after the desired liquor and in her absence Haught fell asleep. When he awoke his money was missing. He accused his companions of the theft, but all denied having seen the cash. Threats to call the police had no effect and Haught left the place, going home and reporting his misfortune to his wife.

It was Mrs. Haught who first made the theft known to the officers. She at first demanded that the house where the alleged robbery occurred be raided, but finally changed her plan of action. Going herself to the house she accused the women of stealing the money. One of the females promised to try to find it and by so doing temporarily avoided arrest. Mrs. Haught also consulted a justice of the peace and a constable is now working on the case with the police.

ASKS A TRUSTEE

Carl Brothers Alleges Samuel Brothers Is Trying to Evade Paying $40.

Lisbon, March 21.—(Special)—Carl Brothers, of East Liverpool, has asked the court to appoint a trustee to administer the property of Samuel Brothers. The plaintiff received a judgment in "Squire McCarron's court for $40 and claims that Samuel Brothers has wrongfully conveyed his property to his wife, Geneva Brothers, to avoid payment.

Carom Club Entertained.

The Carom club was agreeably entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Rayman, Calcutta road, last evening. There were players for six tables. Miss Rose Bishop, of Logan, Ohio, Mrs. Rayman's guest, favored the guests with choice music. Light refreshments were served.

THE BUSY SEASON AT HEADQUARTERS

Convention Resolutions Will Pour In Upon N. B. of O. P. Officials.

APRIL 10 THE TIME LIMIT

When Such Documents Must All Be In—More Pottery Combine Talk. Big Meeting of Warehouse Women's Local—Pottery News.

Within the next few days all the local unions in the jurisdiction of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters will be furnished with credentials sufficient to qualify their representatives to a seat in the next convention. Secretary T. J. Duffy was busy today making out the blank forms. They will be sent out at once.

From now until April 10 the several locals will continue to send resolutions to the national headquarters. The nature of these documents will be varied and interesting. Few have been received up to the present, but it is thought that many of the organizations have decided to hold their resolutions until within a few days before the time limit expires, when they will have embodied everything they may have to bring before the whole membership.

Just as soon as the papers are in the hands of the national secretary will begin a busy season for that official. He will classify and compile the big batch of documents and they will be printed in pamphlet form. In this shape they will go before the membership previous to the convention in order that all may be given a chance to acquaint themselves with their contents, and enable the delegates to act intelligently and promptly when the resolution is reached in convention.

So many attended a meeting of warehouse women's local No. 7006 last evening that all could not be accommodated in the hall. There were 65 new members received last night, making the total membership over 300. Committees are still working in the potteries, and many others will be received at the next meeting, at which time the local will be admitted to membership in the Brotherhood. The members will be obligated by Secretary T. J. Duffy. The initiation fee after the organization is made a part of the Brotherhood will be increased from 50 cents to $1.50.

George Henry Glinther, representing certain Pittsburg capitalists, whose identity he has not yet disclosed, is expected to arrive in this city not later than next week to again talk over the matter of forming a syndicate of local potteries. Letters to this effect have been received by local manufacturers quite recently. What message Mr. Glinther will have to deliver to the local manufacturers who attended the last conference in the Potters' club rooms is not made public, and his visit here is being awaited with more than usual interest by firms who were represented at the last conference. Mr. Glinther is said to have made the local manufacturers a fair proposition while here, and which was published in this column at the time, but should he address another conference a different proposition may be presented.

William Rex, of the firm of Rex & Dean, has applied for a patent on an anti-friction ball bearing jigger, which, it is claimed, is one of the newest machines placed on the market in recent years. The jigger has been given a thorough test in the shop where it was made, and with a small belt, made entirely of belt laces, sufficient power has been obtained to make plates, so easily is the machine operated. The jigger is adjusted with a minute's time, and there are but three set screws used in different parts of the jigger for this purpose. It is one of the simplest jiggers placed on the market. Already an order for one has been placed by the Smith-Phillips China company.

Quite an important move was made at a meeting of kilnmen's local recently which so far has been kept from the public. It has been decided by the local, after much deliberation not to advance any more two-year apprentices to journeymen, as the officials of the local are of the opinion that the trade has been supplied, and hereafter all apprentices will be required to work out their full time of three years. This announcement was made this morning by an official of the local, and it is one of the most important decisions reached by the local for several months. The new ruling it is announced becomes operative at once.

Within the past few weeks very little has been heard of the formation of a new local, to be composed of kiln firemen. There was a time, and not long ago, when it seemed that a local to cover this branch of the trade would be formed, but it seems that interest has declined, from some cause.

Several potteries of this city are experiencing some trouble in securing sufficient saggars to operate their kilns. Factories where these are made, it seems, cannot fill their orders and not enough can be made at the potteries to fill the demand. The reason is given that saggars made during the cold weather are not as durable as those made in the summer months, on account of so much frost being in the clay. It is claimed the clay should have been thoroughly steamed and all frost taken from it before it is worked into saggars.

PLAYED BABY ACT

CULPRIT CRIED FOR MERCY BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Was Arrested for Disorderly Conduct. Got Off By Leaving the City.

William Halley, who claims to be a printing pressman, but who has never worked since he came to this city, was arrested last night for disorderly conduct. Patrolmen Woods and Bryan made the arrest.

The affidavit against Halley was filed by Mrs. Nellie Mackintosh, proprietress of a resort in the West End. She alleged that the accused man kicked in the door of her house and acted disorderly.

When arraigned before the mayor this morning the victim proved himself to be the most thorough booby that ever occupied a berth in the city jail. He was shivering with fright from head to foot and when faced by his accuser he pleaded for leniency like a small school boy.

Halley's wife keeps house for Mrs. Mackintosh and at the hearing it developed that he had repeatedly beaten her. The mayor wanted to send him up for at least six months, but taking pity on the penitent man, the complainant withdrew the charge and paid the costs.

He agreed, however, to get out of town and the mayor warned him to do so at once.

Where He Amassed Countless Millions—It Is Said His Mind Became Unbalanced As a Result of Continued Gambling.

Visionary wealth of such magnitude that Monte Cristo's legendary millions if placed alongside of it would look like 30 cents, was the cause last evening of the arrest on an insanity charge of Albert Shenton, a well known potter. Sheriff Leonard will take the unfortunate man to Lisbon today, where he will be tried by Judge Boone.

Shenton was taken into custody at about 7 o'clock by Officer Stafford. He was then on Sixth street near the opera house explaining to a crowd of amused spectators that he had just returned from the Alaskan gold fields with countless millions in his possession. He made no objection to his arrest and was locked up without the least trouble.

For the past five months Shenton has been at Wheeling. He returned Wednesday night and made his way to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. McCoy, who lives near Monroe street in the alley between Fourth and Fifth streets. Shenton's wife lives with her mother.

After remaining over night at the house, Shenton went to the home of a neighbor, Mrs. McBride, where he introduced himself. A few moments later he went to the Hill Bros.' grocery, where, after representing himself as a millionaire, he ordered three barrels of flour, five wash tubs, a keg of nutmegs, together with dozens of other articles which he asked to have delivered to Mrs. McBride.

Next going to a prominent jewelry store Shenton left his order for a bushel of diamonds, after which he went to a furniture house and purchased $1,000 worth of mahogany goods, which, he said, he intended to donate to the Carnegie library. In each place he tried to make a purchase, but his actions led those who waited on him to become suspicious and none of the articles he ordered were turned over to him.

After being placed in jail Shenton threatened to bring false imprisonment charges against the police. All of last night and today he talked about his wealth, claiming there were $50,000,000 coming to him today and promising everybody who went near him at least $1,000,000 apiece.

It was at the request of Shenton's wife that Mayor Davidson arranged to have the demented man taken to Lisbon. It is claimed that his mind became affected as the result of continued gambling.

Deputy Sheriff Allison took Shenton to the Lisbon jail this afternoon.

A NEW BUILDING

Among the Many Improvements to Made at the Power House.

Contracts for a large improvement at the power house of the United Power company have been let, causing an expenditure of several thousand dollars.

The company purposes to erect a large brick building on the east side of the present boiler room, to accommodate the new boilers, and this will extend 36 feet east of the wall of the old building. The building will be as high as the old boiler house, the only difference being that it will be of the latest design.

The contract for this work has been let to Hill & Wallace, and its construction will commence within a few days. The new boiler ordered by the company at the time the one now being installed was bought will not be received until the new building is completed.

Within a year's time it is expected that not one of the smaller boilers now in use will be doing service, as the plant will be fully equipped with boilers similar to those now being installed.

THE OLD LIBRARY

A CORRESPONDENT WRITES ABOUT THE MERGING.

Faithful Work Done Which the Public May Have Overlooked.

To the Editor of the News Review.

As a citizen and a well wisher for the city's welfare, I ask space in your paper to say a word upon the public library question, which has received much unnecessary attention of late through the press.

I feel that I am in a position to speak fairly and honestly upon the matter; therefore wish to place before the public phases that have at all times been ignored.

There has been a manifest disposition to make something out of nothing. Here let me say to the credit of the board of the public library that its members have never been in doubt as to their action upon the matter when the proper time would come.

The Trades and Labor council has at all times been willing to bear the load that they have placed upon the people—namely the Carnegie library building—and its action has indicated that it has never questioned what course it should pursue when properly recognized. It was certainly the main instigator of the great blessings and may well look with pride upon the achievements.

One point, however, has been greatly overlooked in this question, and a point that bears as a question of honor upon the founders of the public library. It will no doubt be remembered how the library began in our city about five years ago last September. An effort universally put forth among the laboring people resulted in the opening of a library of meager proportions, yet worthy of the effort. By consistent and careful work the library was carried along until about November when Miss Minta McLare, the present librarian, was tendered the position as custodian of the books and property of the same.

The board was in close financial circumstances and the salary agreed upon was $20 per month. It will be remembered that through the summer months the board felt unable to pay the librarian for full time and she worked there for the small salary of $10 per month, feeling that she was helping in a work that would some time would be a great benefit to the city, and perhaps bring her some return. This was the history of the first three years of the library's existence, at which time the school board made the levy allowed by law, and since that time the librarian has been paid full time, the maximum wages being but $30 per month.

Trades and Labor Council, together with the board of the public library, and the labor organizations combined, are loath to forget a favor conferred upon them, and especially when it comes as a sacrifice, and now the time has come when they must combine their efforts and make one good library. The one who has worked most faithfully for the preservation and maintenance of the public library is left without a position. Now this is not a criticism, but a matter that, in my humble opinion, should claim attention.

ENLARGING THE BOARD

THAT POLICY AS TO THE LIBRARY CRITICISED.

A Correspondent Argues That Nine Men Are Not Needed to Do the Work.

To the Editor of the News Review:

As one of the people I rejoice at the consummation of so desirable an object as the union or consolidation of our two public libraries. This, I believe, is in accord with the wishes of the people, and the general public is certainly to be congratulated. But I question the wisdom of the enlargement of our present Carnegie board.

A board of six trustees is certainly large enough. To increase the number to nine is, in my judgment, not only to detract from the dignity and character of the office itself, but to render it less efficient as a practical working body. It is, too, to divide the responsibilities of the individual member and to suggest to us that "what is everybody's business is nobody's." If the object is simply to provide places for three more men on the board, then why not make the number fifty? Suppose there are about five thousand men in East Liverpool, this will give us all about one chance in ten of getting on the board, provided the women are not made eligible.

If it be said this or that class ought to be represented on the board, I answer the policy of class representation in the formation of a board of this kind, is both illogical and unwise. A man's business, trade, profession or calling, or the fact that he is a member of that order or that order or no order can have no possible bearing upon his fitness or qualification for the office. What is wanted is a faithful and efficient administration of the affairs of the board. With such an administration what matters it whether a member be a laboring man, merchant, millionaire or clerk, whether he be an Odd Fellow or a Mason, a Methodist or a Presbyterian, or whether all the members be laboring men or whether all are boss potters, or, as the board is at present constituted, whether one half be men of affairs and the other half lawyers?

The members of this board are not vested with legislative powers. The general object and purpose of the institution is defined in its charter and cannot be altered, so that the board is powerless to discriminate against classes or individuals even if it were so minded. Why then insist upon a policy which can in no way subserve the interests of an institution of this kind, but may operate against it by the sacrifice of personal qualifications and fitness only to gratify some ambition?

New York, March 21.—Senator Mark Hanna yesterday named the members of the committee on conciliation of the Civic Federation, whose appointment was provided for at the last meeting of the executive committee. According to the by-laws the committee was to consist of the officers of the executive committee, M. A. Hanna, chairman; Samuel Gompers, first vice chairman; Oscar S. Straus, second vice chairman; Charles A. Moore, treasurer, and Ralph M. Easley, secretary, and nine men to be appointed by the chairman. His appointments are:

This committee is to take up threatened trouble between capitalists and workmen with a view to settling them.

MINERS' CONVENTION.

Eight-Hour Day Demanded In One of Resolutions Adopted.

Shamokin, Pa., March 21.—The most important feature of yesterday's session of the convention of districts numbers 1, 7 and 9, of the United Mineworkers of America, was the adoption at the afternoon session of several resolutions. They were the result of various alleged grievances announced in the convention by the different delegations and were presented by the committee on resolutions. Most of them were of sectional, rather than general, interest, but their tone was not the less emphatic. The first resolution adopted demanded an eight hour working day in all the collieries of the anthracite region. Among others adopted were these:

Demanding the recognition of mine committees by operators in the adjustment of disputes resulting in local strikes.

Declaring opposition to working with men not members of the mine workers' union.

Favoring arbitration of trade disputes.

Condemning the system of blacklisting by companies of discharged employees.

The published statement that the replies of the operators to President Mitchell's request for a conference might be construed as a virtual recognition of the mine workers' union, Mr. Mitchell regards as incorrect. Referring to the letters of the presidents of the operating companies, Mr. Mitchell said:

"We do not regard them as recognition in any degree."

Otis Said It Was Hard to Keep the Peace While Filipinos Were Insulting Americans.

Washington, March 21.—General Otis yesterday resumed his testimony before the senate Philippine committee. The proceedings were in part:

General Otis denied that he led Aguinaldo to believe that the United States would not assume absolute sovereignty and governmental control over the islands. Asked what he meant by the statement in his letter that "rather than see the ships of the United States navy control the navigable waters of these islands and its army devastating their territory I prefer to advise my government not to send any more troops here." General Otis answered that that was his opinion because he did not want to see any war. "I wanted to conquer by peaceable means," said he, "but I gave the impression that there were troops waiting."

Was Trying to Keep the Peace.

General Otis said, answering an inquiry by Senator Hale, that had the government taken him at his word, not to send more troops, anarchy would have reigned throughout the island. He thought that his letter should be considered as a whole. "That was a period when I was laboring hard," said he, "to keep the peace and to keep our men and off-cers from paying attention to the results received from Philippine officers and insurgents."

Answering Senator Patterson, General Otis said that the commission of which General Hughes was a member, had stated to the representative of Aguinaldo that no concessions could be made without the sacrifice of some of the attributes of sovereignty.

General Otis declared that the Filipinos have no correct idea of liberty. "Liberty with them," said he, "is license."

A question by Senator Beveridge regarding the effect on the Filipinos of literature sent from the United States precipitated a lively discussion. General Otis said that when Mabini was brought in he had a pile of New York papers with him which had antagonized the sovereignty of the United States in the Philippines. "Did he have any of Senator Hoar's speeches?" inquired Senator Beveridge.

Hoar's Speeches All Over Islands.

"Oh, yes, those speeches were all over the islands," replied the witness. Senator Allison, who was in the chair, said that he would exclude any allusion to senators' speeches.

"When the senator from Indiana," said Senator Patterson, "propounded that question it involved every senator who is standing by what he believes to be simple justice to the Filipinos. I do not propose to be assailed from behind a masked battery."

Senator Carmack said he wanted to take his part of the responsibility for saying that the war in the Philippines is "utterly and absolutely infamous and criminal. If any proof can be made that I am inciting Filipinos by such speeches," said he, "I want it done."

Beveridge finally withdrew his question.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. ## PHENOMENAL ESCAPE

CONTENTS OF A SHOT GUN FAILED TO KILL.

Discharged into the Body and Head of a Lisbon Man Who Still Lives.

Paul Paisley, who left Lisbon a short time ago for Colorado, met with a shooting affair which should by all the laws which govern the action of a deadly shotgun have cost him his life. The following extract taken from the Riverside Daily Press:

"Mr. Paisley, with two friends went hunting in the neighborhood of Dick Young's bee ranch near Perris. After they had gone a little way out, the two other young fellows turned back, and Paisley went on alone about a mile and a half. Having fired one load from his muzzle loading double barreled shotgun he stopped to reload. He put in powder, then holding the muzzle of the gun against his side with his left elbow, reached around to his hip pocket with his right hand for the rest of the charge. Suddenly the barrel which had not been emptied discharged its contents into his side just below the left nipple, tearing a hole upward through the muscles, coming out above the nipple, and finally stopping in the skull back of the ear.

"Dr. Gill, who dressed the wound, says that ordinarily such a charge hitting a man on the skull would have blown his head off. But Paisley was not even unconscious. He put out the fire which the explosion had made in his coat, walked back the mile and a half to the wagon, drove to Riverside and had Dr. Gill dress the wound, then walked home. The next morning he walked to the doctor's office, and does not seem to be seriously incriminated by his wound. The doctor says he has seen some very narrow escapes on the battlefield, but never so close as this."

The Belmont county authorities are yet ignorant of the whereabouts of Barney Devine and Leonard Stevens, the murderers who escaped from the county jail at St. Clairsville Monday night. It is now believed the criminals will never be recaptured.

Street Commissioner Bryan has issued his annual notice to property owners to clean up their premises and the streets, alleys and sidewalks adjacent to them. Such a notice ought to be unnecessary. If anybody thinks it is, he is either blind or has not looked around him. The city is disgracefully dirty in almost every quarter. The severe winter, which has prevented the removal of accumulations, and the absence of the garbage collector on his regular trips are both partially accountable. But every man is responsible for the rubbish that has been piled up about his property and should heed the warning of Commissioner Bryan or be made to heed it. The spring cleaning should be thorough. Every citizen of East Liverpool is proud of his city as a hustling, enterprising, business town. Let each one do his part and the street cleaning department keep busy also in time we may all be able to be proud of it as a clean and attractive city as well. But at present the man who would boast of the neat appearance of East Liverpool's streets and alleys would be in danger of being summoned before Judge Boone to undergo an inquest as to his sanity.

A government agent talks enthusiastically of agricultural prospects in Alaska, saying that the territory is fully capable of producing food to feed 3,000,000 persons. But until the agricultural resources of the warmer regions of the earth are more fully developed, most of the digging and spading that is done in Alaska will probably continue to be done by the gold seekers.

We have no sympathy for the Muskingum college students who got shot while "cutting up." Students who conduct themselves like burglars and highwaymen and get the treatment ordinarily meted out to such gentry get exactly what they deserve. It is no excuse to say they are merely boys. Boys who know enough to go to college ought to begin to act like men if they ever intend to do so.

The story that Bryan is about to boom Tom Johnson for the presidency is naturally received with incredulity. When you catch the distinguished Nebraskan booming anybody except the perpetual candidate, you may know he has changed his nature completely.

AT THE THEATER

"A triumph in the theatrical art" has become technical with critics and newspaper men in describing Frank Keenan's work at the close of the second act in his new production of "Hon. John Grigsby." When Hon. John Grigsby learns the condition of his nomination the audience becomes spellbound and silence prevails, save for the ticking of the old office clock on the mantel piece. The scene is a most impressive one for its naturalness and originality. Mr. Keenan and his conscientious company will undoubtedly be greeted by a large and fashionable audience at the Grand tonight.

A QUESTION OF BUYING

The House Calcutta Road Cars Run Into Presented the Street Railway.

"To buy or not to buy" is a matter that is agitating the minds of the officials of the East Liverpool Railway company and also the heirs of the Wucherer estate, owning the property at Calcutta road and Wall street, where cars running away on Calcutta road have had a habit of stopping suddenly. A conference was held yesterday afternoon, John Wucherer representing the estate and L. W. Healy the street railway company.

It is said the company stood ready to purchase the property for about $2,500, but the heirs wanted $6,500. This price seemed too high for the company and another conference is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.

The company is reported to have offered to make further improvements on the Wucherer property, by the building of an 18-inch wall about the yard and the placing of an additional derailing switch at a point yet to be determined between Wall street and Grant street. These are matters that are to be considered at the next conference.

NEW EDIFICE

TO BE BUILT FOR SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. C. L. V. McKee, Pastor, Makes the Announcement—Present House Too Small.

"A new Second Presbyterian church will be built in the West End," was the statement made by Rev. C. L. V. McKee, pastor of the church of that denomination in this city, to a News Review reporter yesterday afternoon.

"Our main object in having a new building erected," said Rev. Mr. McKee, "is that our present place of worship is not large enough to accommodate our membership, which is steadily increasing."

As to the location of the church or just when the construction of it is to be commenced Rev. Mr. McKee was unable to unfold anything definite, but for several excellent reasons it is very likely that it will be erected at some place near the old one.

Rev. Mr. McKee has been pastor of the Second Presbyterian church since its infancy and incidentally has been in the city for a longer time than any other minister now living in Wellsville, which fact is quite a recommendation and shows conclusively that he has been very successful. He has worked arduously and with sincerity for the members of his church and as a result the church is one of the most prosperous in the city and has a very bright future.

NO MORE SUITS

ARE LIKELY AS A RESULT OF THIRD STREET FILL.

City Said to Have Compromised With the Holliday Heirs for $200.

City Solicitor Wells, when asked by a reporter whether or not the Holliday heirs intend filing suit against the city, as did the Lawson brothers, stated that he thought a suit would be avoided in their case, as they are now favorably considering a settlement as proposed by the city council. The property belonging to the Holliday heirs, which was undoubtedly damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars by the filling in on Third street, is located at the corner of Third and Lisbon streets. It has always rented well and is considered a valuable piece of real estate.

The settlement in this case will strike the city council much more favorably than in the Lawson case, as it is said that the agreement practically closed will let the city off by the payment of $200 or by the superintending and paying for the raising of the building and placing a foundation under it.

It is not likely that any other property owners along Third street will enter suit against the city for damages, because they agree in the opinion that their property was materially improved by the fill.

BUILDING NEW ROAD

Work Being Pushed on a Switch to the New Fire Clay Plant.

Thomas H. Silvers, the banker, is superintending the construction of the new railroad leading from the C. & P. railroad out to the spot selected by the stockholders of the Champion Fire Brick and Clay company for the new plant. There are a dozen men in the construction gang and the work is being pushed rapidly.

The road will run parallel with the old route to the Lawson oil field, but will be elevated to a distance of at least 10 feet.

EAST END PARK

Improvement of That Section of the City Promises to Be Rapid.

That portion of the East End which is to be converted into a park and residence district has been surveyed and the stakes driven. A. R. Wells, who is at the head of the company which has announced its intention of so improving this section of the city, is very busy formulating the plans for the new buildings.

At least 20 modern houses are to be erected, and it is thought work will be commenced upon them in a few days.

HAD A COLD BATH

Colored Deckhands Got an Accidental Fall Into the River.

There was a report in circulation around the upper wharf this morning that two negro deckhands were thrown accidentally into the river off the steamer Greenwood and that they narrowly escaped drowning. As the story goes the boat had made a landing and was backing out and, as is the custom, the plank was being hoisted when it struck the negroes and precipitated them into the water.

By the aid of ropes and hooks they were rescued from their unhappy predicament.

PUNISH GEN. MILES?

Inquiry as to Whether Roosevelt and Root Have Grounds For Action.

CRITICISED ROOT AND CORBIN,

Without Mentioning Names, Before Senate Committee—Said He Could Name Men Now Who Would Get Positions, if Hawley Bill Passed.

Washington, March 21.—The news of General Miles' statement yesterday before the military committee of the senate excited great interest at the war department when it became known there late in the day. There was a very general inquiry as to whether, by passing the criticisms upon various officials, as reported in the press, General Miles had not exposed himself to disciplinary treatment. The answer to this must be based on the exact amount of privilege which attaches to testimony given before a committee of congress. This question arose last week in the course of General Hughes' testimony before the senate Philippine commission, when the general sought to escape answering questions which would involve criticism by him of his superior officer, General Otis. It appeared that there was a variance of opinion in the committee itself as to how far General Hughes was at liberty to violate army rules and proprieties, even in answer to committee questions, and the question itself was left unsettled.

While General Miles did not expect when he gave his testimony that it would be made public in any form, he is now willing that it shall be published by the committee, making himself the broad statement that the statements which were given to the press as those made by himself before the committee were misrepresentations, totally unwarranted and unauthorized.

Miles' Threat to Retire.

According to reliable information, received by the Associated Press, General Nelson A. Miles yesterday told the senate committee on military affairs that if the bill introduced by Senator Hawley at the instance of the war department for the organization of a general staff for the army should become a law he would decline to longer hold his commission. The reason he gave for the statement is that the bill is utterly subversive of the interests of the military establishment, and he said he would not be a party to such a proceeding to the extent even of continuing to hold his place.

The statement was made in the course of a prolonged hearing by the committee, which was conducted behind closed doors and in which General Miles touched upon a variety of subjects connected with the army. The portion of the bill to which he directed his especial criticism is that contained in section 7, reading as follows: "That from and after the passage of this act the senior general officer of the army shall be assigned to command such portion of the army as the president may direct, or be detailed to duty in the general staff corps. All duties prescribed by law for the commanding general of the army shall be performed by the chief of general staff or other general officer, designated by the secretary of war—provided that as long as the present lieutenant general of the army keeps on the active list he shall be the chief of the general staff, and upon the separation from active service of the said lieutenant general of the army, said office, except as herein provided, shall cease and determine."

Would Destroy Unity of Army.

General Miles said that if this provision should become a law it would have the effect of destroying the unity of the army, and he read numerous authorities, including Napoleon, Wellington, Washington, Cass and Grant, to show the necessity of having one head to the army and of controlling authority. His own experience and observation had, he said, had the effect of confirming these views, and he gave an illustration of its beneficial effect in time of emergency, instancing the beginning of the war with Spain. "I heard at midnight," he said, "that the Spanish fleet had been located definitely at Santiago, and I hastened to the home of Secretary Long, where the news was confirmed. Shafter was then at Tampa and I sat down there, in the secretary's house, and wrote a dispatch directing him to start immediately for Santiago, with the result that the army was soon on its way to the point where its presence was needed. Suppose," he added, exhibiting the message which he had sent to General Shafter, "I had been compelled to get around to a dozen or more majors as many colonels and any number of generals constituting a general staff."

Then he added that in all probability the senior general of the army would not under the provision he had quoted have been in a position to do anything, and he called attention to the clause relieving him (the senior general) of command and making it possible for any other officer to be appointed. He declared that under section 7 it would be competent to one day promote a captain to the position of a brigadier and the next day make him chief of staff, thus practically placing a captain at the head of the army. Warming up somewhat, he asserted that the bill was calculated to accomplish no purpose except to allow the secretary of war and the adjutant general to promote the interests of their personal favorites.

General Miles was questioned as to the reasons for locating the American army of occupation at Tampa and holding it there so long with the resulting congestion.

First Intended to Occupy Havana.

Replying to the first question, he said that it was because of the order to occupy Havana. The delay was due, he said, to the fact that the American army was supplied with only 64 rounds of ammunition, which would not have been sufficient for more than half an hour of fighting. Considering that Havana was one of the best fortified cities in the world, he said that to have attacked it would have been foolhardy in the extreme. He declined, however, to criticize the then secretary of war, General Alger, for the condition of affairs, saying that probably any one else in the position would have done about what he did. He laid the general blame for this condition of unpreparedness at the door of congress.

Could Name the Appointees.

In the course of his remarks General Miles told the committee in confidence that with the bill a law he could now name the men who would hold the places of honor provided under it, but the committee did not ask for the names.

The omission by the president of his usual ride yesterday afternoon, and the fact that he and Secretary Root were in conference for nearly four hours, led to the supposition that they were discussing General Miles' testimony. This, however, was an erroneous conclusion, for they were talking about an army regulation and the secretary was unaware of the testimony until he returned to the war department, very late in the afternoon.

Root Says Miles Opposes Bill.

Secretary Root exhibited little feeling when his attention was called to the proceedings before the committee. He remarked quietly that he was very sorry Lieut. Gen. Miles opposed this bill. He pointed out that under section 7, of which Miles complained, the lieutenant general would have greatly enlarged powers in army management, instead of being restricted in his function, as he supposed. As to the question whether Gen. Miles had said anything which would require action at the hands of the department or the president, the secretary firmly declined to express any opinion, for the present at least, preferring to await an official copy of the testimony before he made any decision.

VOTE TO BE TAKEN TODAY.

Agreement Reached Yesterday on Measure For Protection of Presidents.

Washington, March 21.—Through-out yesterday's session of the senate the bill providing for the protection of the president of the United States was under discussion. Just before adjournment an agreement was reached to vote on the measure and pending amendments at 4 o'clock to-day.

day. The speakers yesterday were Messrs. Pettus, Alabama; Hawley, Connecticut; and Nelson, Minnesota, in support of the bill, and by Messrs. Rawlins, Utah; McCumber, North Dakota; Mallory, Florida; Carmack, Tennessee; and Money and McLaurin, of Mississippi, in opposition to it. The speeches in the main were a reinforcement of arguments that have been advanced heretofore, few new points being raised. The principal point made by the opponents of the measure was that federal officials ought to be treated in the courts precisely as are other citizens.

Three substitutes for the bill are pending and will be pressed when the voting begins today.

Labor Leaders Saw the President.

Washington, March 21.—James O'Connell, president of the International Association of Machinists; John J. Keegan and Fred Harley, of Philadelphia called on the president yesterday to urge the abolishment of the system of piece work in vogue at the Frankfort arsenal, Philadelphia. They also asked for a modification of the president's recent order against employees of the government trying to influence legislation. They charged that this order is being used in some cases for purposes of intimidation by officers in authority, in order to prevent the filing of legitimate complaints. They will be accorded another interview today.

OVERTURES TO HANNA

Made by Daugherty—Their Representatives Held Conference.

GEN. DICK PLEDGED NOTHING.

To Daugherty's Representative, Huling, So He Said—Latter Admitted Daugherty Wanted to Run For Governor.

Columbus, O., March 21.—John R. Malloy, who returned yesterday from Washington, gave out an authorized statement of what took place at the conference between Cyrus Huling and General Dick, representing Senator Hanna, at Dick's house in Washington last week, which shows that it was all in the way of overtures from the Daugherty faction.

In order to cultivate friendly relations between the two factions, which presumably meant the support of Hanna for re-election to the senate by the Daugherty faction, Huling wanted the Hanna faction to let Daugherty be chairman of the coming state convention, State Treasurer I. B. Cameron, of Columbiana county, to be state campaign chairman this year; renominate Judge Williams, of the supreme court, and wanted Limus Kauffman, of this city, for state food commissioner.

Huling admitted that Daugherty wanted to be the candidate for governor next year and suggested that Dick would probably not want that nomination, as it would embarrass Hanna, who would then be candidate for the senate.

General Dick says he drew out the Daugherty hand without pledging anything.

JOHN DILLON WAS SUSPENDED.

Refused to Withdraw an Expression Calling Chamberlain a "D—Liar."

London, March 21.—During debate in the house of commons, yesterday afternoon, Joseph Chamberlain, in replying to a speech by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, in the conduct of the Boer war, accused the opposition of "malignant slander."

The speaker, Sir William Court Gully, here intervened and declared that the term "malignant slander" was unparliamentary.

Both Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Mr. Chamberlain thereupon withdrew the words amid cheers.

Mr. Chamberlain, proceeding, referred to the Boers who are fighting on the British side, when John Dillon (Irish Nationalist) interjected, "They are traitors," on which Mr. Chamberlain retorted: "The honorable gentleman is a good judge of traitors."

A scene of great confusion ensued. When order was partially restored Mr. Dillon demanded a ruling on Mr. Chamberlain's words. The speaker said: "An honorable member spoke of soldiers serving under the British flag as traitors. I deprecated the interruption and I deprecated the retort of the other member."

Mr. Dillon then said: "I will tell the right honorable member that he is a d—liar."

Dillon refused to withdraw the term and was suspended by a vote of the house.

TWIN TROUBLES

They Are Often Together These Days. They Work Havoc All over the Country and In East Liverpool.

Weak, nervous, the digestion out of order. That is what ails a host of people. It comes about in this way. First from overwork or other causes, the nerves are burdened beyond endurance, nerve waste is not replaced, nerve force is weakened. Then the stomach loses its nerve controlling power, and indigestion follows with falling strength. When first Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills came to East Liverpool, people could hardly believe that this great medicine should remove these troubles. Now it is an accepted fact because of its cure of very stubborn cases no other medicine would influence. Mrs. Margaret Tracy, of No. 178 Seventh street, East Liverpool, O., says: "One of my family was very nervous—subject to nervous spells—weak and irritable—could not sleep and the digestion was very poor. I asked the invalid to take Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets. The result was splendid. The medicine built her up, enriched the blood, made the nerves strong, gave restful sleep and so strengthened the stomach that digestion is perfect. The old time languid, played out feeling has given place to one of strength and energy, and as a result we are more than pleased with the medicine."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

OCCUPIED THE MOST ATTENTION,

Did the So Called Specialists, In the Stock Market, on Thursday.

Some of Features.

New York, March 21.—The so-called specialists still occupied the largest share of attention in the stock market Thursday. Their movements were not quite so wide nor so feverishly erratic as Wednesday, but there was still an eccentric irregularity in this portion of the market. As for the standard stocks that usually make up the bulk of the trading by reason of their large capitalization and representative character, they were neglected and sluggish, as for some time past. There was some heaviness among the anthracite carriers, caused by the rather threatening attitude assumed by the miners' conference at Shamokin, but the declines in that group were limited to fractions, and good recoveries were made. There was good support in St. Paul without any explanation for the buying, which gave rise to the supposition that the support was part of the plan to facilitate the operations of speculative pools elsewhere in the market. Colorado Fuel was again a conspicuous figure and touched Wednesday's high level again at 107, closing with a net gain of 4½ after a very erratic course during the day. This movement seemed to have a sympathetic effect upon Tennessee Coal and Hocking Coal, but the United States Steel stocks continued neglected and heavy, as they have been ever since the proposed bond issue was announced. Sugar was sold early on professed disappointment over the terms of the bill reducing the Cuban sugar tariff, but later it rose strongly, and closed with a net gain of a point. Amalgamated Copper continued quite active and was bought by the shorts to cover yielding in a net gain of about a point. The market closed quite active, but irregular.

POPE TO CONSULT OUR VIEWS.

Wishes Philippine Affairs Fixed According to American Interests.

Rome, March 21.—Mgr. Sbarretti, the papal delegate to the Philippines, who is on his way to the Philippines, will make a brief stop at Washington, in order to consult the United States government in connection with Philippine affairs. The vatican authorities intend to hold the matter of a hierarchy in abeyance until the situation in the Philippines becomes more settled.

It is the vatican's desire to finally adjust matters in the archipelago in accordance with American views and interests. Therefore, it has been decided to appoint no more Spaniards among the new bishops. As a result of this decision, Mgr. Nozalea, archbishop of Manila, now here, has tendered his resignation and will proceed to Spain, where he will hereafter reside.

SWEEPING IN IMPORTANCE.

Such Is Ohio Supreme Court Decision in Toledo Case.

Columbus, March 21.—The supreme court, in an opinion involving the constitutionality of a law authorizing the city of Toledo to issue bridge bonds, handed down yesterday, takes the ground that laws resting on the classification of cities which are purely local in their application, are special legislation, and that they cannot be justified, except by an emergency.

The decisions of both the common pleas and circuit courts, which sustained the Toledo law, are reversed. The opinion of the supreme court is regarded as sweeping in its importance.

Chinese Tablets Taken From Soldier.

Washington, March 21.—The treasury department has called upon the customs officials at San Francisco for a report on the seizure of Chinese tablets in that city from a soldier who had returned from the east. It has been alleged that the tablets were taken from the imperial apartments during the looting of Peking by the foreign troops. The soldier claims to have bought them from another soldier, who found them in an ash barrel.

Fitzsimmons States His Terms.

Los Angeles, March 21.—Manager McCarry, of the Century Athletic club, received a telegram from Robert Fitzsimmons shortly before noon yesterday stating the conditions under which he would accept the club's offer to pull off the proposed fight with Jeffries in this city. The text of Fitzsimmons' message has not been given out, but it is understood that he asks for 75 per cent of the gate receipts and a guarantee of $25,000.

There are 6,000 Filipinos in one of the camps and 19,000 in the other.

ROCK SPRINGS RAILWAY REJECTS COUNCIL'S OFFER.

Not Disposed to Accept a 25-Year Franchise—Street Paving Estimates.

Chester council was given a hard blow at the meeting last night when J. Howard Maxwell, of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs Street Railway company, arose and in a quiet but impressive manner stated that the railway company had decided not to accept the proposition made by council in regard to the franchise granting the company the right of way for laying a track out First and up Carolina avenue.

Mr. Maxwell said: "The company has well considered your proposition and it has decided that to accept it would be folly. The company now has a perpetual franchise over a very good route and it would be poor judgment to accept for only 25 years, with other drawbacks equally as preposterous. The company bears no malice against council as it was simply a business proposition on which we could not agree."

It was several minutes before the councilmen recovered from the shock. They could not understand why a company should so completely ignore their well-weighted proposition.

As a result of the refusal it is quite evident that if a bridge is erected at First street there will be but one concern called upon to pay the expenses, and of course that is the town. It would have been nice if the railway company had agreed to pay at least $500 of the expense.

The paving ordinance prepared by Solicitor Marshall was read and passed after being amended so as to read: "After property owners are notified, the first payment shall fall due in 30 days; the second payment in six months; the third payment in one year, and the final payment in 18 months." Only Mr. Wetzel voted no.

Engineer Boyd submitted an estimate on the cost of paving and improving Carolina avenue from Marks Run bridge to First street. The estimate was: Grading, $2,250; dressed curbing, $4,972; rough curbing, $126.75; paving, $21,550. The engineer was instructed to make an estimate on the paving of First street and on a fill to be placed instead of a bridge.

A franchise granting the Bell Telephone company the privilege of constructing poles at places designated on the streets, was read and referred. Several objections were raised to the franchise.

Several small bills were ordered paid.

The solicitor was ordered to draw up an ordinance providing for the granting of a bill poster's license to W. Bridge & Son, of East Liverpool.

A TRANSFORMATION

The scene changes from Winter to Spring.—Converts take the place of Chin-chillas—The nobby top-coat a little above the knee, usurps the place of the ulster reaching to the heels. Makers of men's best clothing have improved their productions, and we keep pace with the best. The experimental military sack coat, improved, becomes a fad.
